The Paſſage at the South End of Brick Lane to be widened.

LXIII. And whereas the Paſſage through the South End of Brick Lane is greatly obſtructed by ſome old Houſes or Buildings ſtanding on the Eaſt Side thereof, and projecting into the ſaid Lane, and the removing the ſame, and laying the Scite or Ground whereon they ſtand into the common Highway would be of publick Convenience; be it therefore further enacted, That when the Owners or Proprietors of the Houſes, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in a certain Lane called Golden Lane, or the Occupiers thereof, or any of them, or any Perſon or Perſons, ſhall have raiſed a ſufficient Sum of Money for the Purchaſe of ſuch Houſes or Buildings, and the Scite or Ground whereon they ſtand, in Brick Lane aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for them, or any of them, to pay the ſame to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, or, by their Order, to their Treaſurer: And in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, ſhall think the ſaid Sum of Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, and they are hereby impowered, to treat, contract, and agree, with the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, for the Purchaſe of the ſaid Houſes or Buildings in Brick Lane aforeſaid, or ſuch Parts thereof, or ſo much thereof as they ſhall think neceſſary for making the ſaid South End of Brick Lane of a ſufficient Width, and for the Scite or Ground whereon the ſame ſtand, and their Intereſt therein, for ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, and the ſaid Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, ſhall agree upon: And in caſe any Diſpute or Difference ſhall ariſe between the ſaid Commiſſioners and the ſaid Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, reſpecting ſuch Purchaſe or Purchaſes, the ſame ſhall be determined by a Jury; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, ſhall purſue ſuch and the ſame Means and Methods for becoming poſſeſſed thereof as are herein-before preſcribed with reſpect to the purchaſing and becoming poſſeſſed of the Houſes and Buildings in Chiſwell Street aforeſaid: And the Money to be paid for ſuch Purchaſe, and the Expences attending the ſame, ſhall be paid out of the Sum of Money herein-before mentioned to be raiſed by the Owners or Proprietors of Houſes, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Golden Lane, or the Occupiers thereof, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid: And it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Nine or more of them, to take down the ſaid Houſes and Buildings, and to lay the Scite or Ground thereof, or of ſuch Part thereof as they ſhall think proper, into the Street or Highway; and the ſame ſhall for ever after be deemed a publick and common Highway.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS the Iſle of Man, from its Situation in the Middle of Saint George's Channel, affords a convenient Refuge for Ships, in caſe of ſudden and croſs Gales of Wind, which frequently happen in thoſe narrow Seas, and therefore the Preſervation of Your Majeſty's Ships, and the Intereſt of Trade and Navigation in general, require that the ſeveral Sea Ports and Harbours thereof, now veſted in Your Majeſty, ſhould be maintained and ſupported in proper Condition and Repair: And whereas the Duties formerly impoſed for this Purpoſe, by the Statutes of the ſaid Iſland, aroſe almoſt entirely from the contraband Trade carried on there, which being totally ſuppreſſed ſince the Purchaſe thereof by Your Majeſty, the Fund for maintaining the Harbours has failed, and they are become ruinous, and likely to fall entirely to Decay, unleſs ſome other Funds are provided: Now therefore, we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Sums of Money that have been raiſed, levied, collected, or paid, by virtue of all or any the Statutes of the ſaid Iſland, for or on Account of the Harbours therein, at any Time or Times from and after the Seventeenth Day of May, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-five, (at which Time the ſaid Iſland became veſted in His Majeſty) until the Fifth Day of July, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and which have or ſhall have been paid into the Hands of His Majeſty's Receiver-general of the ſaid Iſland, or his Deputy, ſhall be by him or them, or under his or their Direction, immediately laid out or employed for or towards the Repairs of the ſeveral Harbours in the ſaid Iſland; and the ſaid Receiver-general, or his Deputy, ſhall forthwith tranſmit an Account of ſuch Diſpoſal of the Money to the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being.

Preamble.

All Sums levied by virtue of the Statutes of the Iſland, on account of the Harbours therein, after May 17, 1765, to be employed towards the Repairs of the Harbours in the Iſland.

Publick Buildings, etc. to be rated.

LX. And, foraſmuch as it is reaſonable that all publick Buildings, Warehouſes, and all dead Walls, and void Spaces of Ground, within or adjoining to the ſaid Squares, Yards, Streets, Paſſage, and Court, or the Paſſages therein, or leading thereunto, ſhould be rated and aſſeſſed in due Proportion, towards the paving, cleanſing, lighting, and watching, the ſaid Squares, Yards, Streets, Paſſage, and Court, and the Paſſages therein, or leading thereunto; be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, and they are hereby required, to Rate and aſſeſs all Houſes, Church-yards, Chapels, Warehouſes, and other publick Buildings whatſoever; and all dead Walls, and void Spaces of Ground, within the ſaid Squares, Yards, Streets, Paſſage, and Court, and the Paſſages therein, or leading thereunto, or any of them, at ſuch Rate as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, ſhall judge reaſonable for every ſquare Yard of ſuch Churches, Church-yards, Chapels, Warehouſes, and publick Buildings, and all dead Walls, and void Spaces of Ground, not exceeding the Rate of Sixpence in the Pound, for every ſquare Yard of Pavement belonging to every ſuch Church, Church-yard, Chapel, Warehouſes, publick Buildings, and void Spaces of Ground; and ſuch Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, ſo to be from Time to Time made upon any Church, Church-yard, or Chapel, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Church or Chapel-wardens; and ſuch Rate or Rates, Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments, ſo to be from Time to Time made upon any Warehouſes, publick Buildings, or upon any dead Wall, or void Spaces of Ground, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors thereof.

and alſo reciting, that Elizabeth O'Farrell, Widow, in Eaſter Term, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-five, did obtain a Judgement in the Court of Common Pleas in the Kingdom of Ireland againſt the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, for the Sum of Five thouſand four hundred Pounds; and that the ſaid Gerald the younger afterwards died, leaving Iſſue Three Sons, John his eldeſt Son, Gerald the younger, his ſecond Son, and Chriſtopher his third Son; and reciting, that the ſaid John the eldeſt Son died without Iſſue ſoon after the Death of his ſaid Father, and that thereupon the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, the ſecond Son of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald the younger, became his eldeſt Son and Heir at Law, and was Heir at Law and Heir Male of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald the Patentee, and had entered into and became ſeiſed of and intitled to the ſaid Lands and Premiſes, ſubject to the above Incumbrance, and after the Death of the ſaid Mary Fitzgerald, otherwiſe Connor, (the Widow of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald the Grantor), levied Fines and ſuffered Recoveries of Part of the ſaid Lands, and had contracted ſeveral Debts, ſecured by ſeveral Judgements; and alſo reciting, that it had been lately diſcovered that the Reverſion in Fee of and in the Lands and Premiſes in the ſaid Letters Patent, Claim, and Adjudication mentioned, expectant as aforeſaid, was, by virtue of and under the ſaid Act, made in the Firſt and Second Years of the Reign of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for advancing the Sale of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, and for veſting ſuch as remain unſold by the preſent Truſtees in Her Majeſty, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, and for the more effectually ſelling and ſetting the ſaid Eſtates to Proteſtants; and for explaining ſeveral Acts relating to Lord Bophin and Sir Redmond Everard, become veſted in His preſent Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſubject to the Order of Parliament; and that the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, the Grand Nephew and Heir of the ſaid Patentee, had no other Fund or Expedient to ſecure his Perſon, or to exonerate his ſaid Eſtate, but by ſelling ſome Part thereof, or mortgaging the ſame, for that Purpoſe, which he was unable effectually to do without diveſting the Reverſion in Fee of the ſaid Eſtate out of His Majeſty; and that it had been uſual and frequent, in ſuch Caſes, for the Crown to extend their Grace and Favour to Proteſtant Subjects well attached to His Majeſty, it was enacted, That the Remainder or Reverſion in Fee-ſimple, expectant on the Determination of the ſeveral Entails therein-before mentioned, and all other Eſtates, Right, Title, and Intereſt, of and in certain Towns and Lands, with their Appurtenances, ſituate in the Counties of Meath, Weſtmeath, Kildare, and Cavan, in the Kingdom of Ireland, therein particularly mentioned, which, in and by virtue of the ſaid Act of Parliament, were then veſted in His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhould be thereby diveſted, and the ſame was thereby diveſted out of the Crown, ſo that His preſent Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or any of them, or any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, claiming, or to claim, by, from, or under, or in Truſt for him, them, or any of them, or by, from, or under the ſeveral Acts of Parliament therein-before recited, by reaſon of the Forfeitures therein-before mentioned, or otherwiſe howſoever, ſhould not, nor might from thenceforth have any Right, Title, or Intereſt, therein or thereunto; and that the ſaid Reverſion or Remainder in Fee-ſimple, and other the Eſtates and Intereſts of and in the Lands and Hereditaments therein mentioned, ſhould, from and immediately after the paſſing of the ſaid Act, be veſted in, and the ſame were thereby from thenceforth veſted in the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, his Heirs and Aſſigns, for ever: And it was thereby further enacted, That all and every Papiſt, and Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, ſhould be diſabled and made incapable to purchaſe, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name or Names of any other Perſon or Perſons to his or her Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and Premiſes aforeſaid, or any Rents, Profits, Terms, or Intereſts, in or out of the ſame; and that all and ſingular Eſtates, Terms, and other Intereſts and Profits whatſoever, in or out of the Premiſes, and all Conveyances and Declarations of Truſt concerning the ſame, which ſhould be made, ſuffered, or done, to or for the Uſe, Benefit, or Behoof of any ſuch Papiſt, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid-recited Acts of Parliament, ſhould be utterly void and of no Effect, to all Intents, Purpoſes, and Conſtructions whatſoever: And in the ſaid Act was contained a Clauſe for ſaving to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, all ſuch Crown-rents, Quit-rents, Compoſitions, Services, and Duties, as were due and payable, and ought to be paid or performed to His Majeſty on account of the Premiſes, or any Part thereof; and alſo a Saving to all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, of all ſuch Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim, and Demand whatſoever, of, in, to, or out of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, therein mentioned, or any of them, with the Appurtenances, or any Part thereof, (other than and except His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the Truſtees named in and by the ſaid Acts of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the late King William the Third, and their Heirs), as they, every, or any of them, have, or had, or might have had, at or before the making the ſaid Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Act had never been made: And whereas the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald is ſeiſed of the Towns and Lands herein-after mentioned, claiming Title thereto in the ſame Manner as in the ſaid Act of the Fourth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign was mentioned with reſpect to the Lands therein compriſed, and His preſent Majeſty is alſo ſeiſed of the Reverſion in Fee of the Towns and Lands herein-after mentioned, claiming Title thereto in the ſame Manner, and by virtue of the ſame Forfeiture, as was mentioned and ſet forth in the ſaid Act of Parliament, paſſed in the Fourth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign: And whereas the Leaſes of the Lands in the laſt-mentioned Act, or the greateſt Part thereof, expired, and the ſaid Lands came into the Occupation of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, the Grand Nephew and Heir of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald the Patentee, as the Owner thereof, in bad Condition, and, by reaſon of the many Debts and Incumbrances charged upon the ſaid Lands, the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald hath not been able to put the ſaid Lands into a State of Cultivation and Improvement, ſo as to let the ſame to good and ſubſtantial Tenants; and in caſe the ſaid Lands were offered to Sale in their preſent Condition, the ſame muſt be ſold to a great Diſadvantage; but the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, for the Security of his Creditors, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, hath executed a Mortgage of the Lands in the ſaid former Act mentioned, or Part thereof, unto the Reverend John Magill Clerk, One of his Creditors, for ſecuring Six thouſand ſix hundred thirty-three Pounds, Two Shillings and Seven Pence Three Farthings, being the Amount of his Demand, and the Demands of ſeveral other Creditors; which Mortgage is ſtill ſubſiſting: And whereas the Debt to Elizabeth O'Farrell, Widow, in the ſaid former Act mentioned to be due on a Judgement in the Court of Common Pleas in Ireland, appears to have been alſo ſecured by a Mortgage among other of the Lands herein-after mentioned, with the uſual Covenants in the ſaid Mortgage Deed; and the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, the Grand Nephew of the ſaid Patentee, who is ſeiſed in Tail-male of the Lands ſo mortgaged, with Reverſion in Fee to His preſent Majeſty, is adviſed, that no Perſon will contract or treat for the Purchaſe of the Lands in the ſaid former Act, unleſs they are diſcharged from all the Debts to which the ſame are liable, and put into proper Order and Condition, and let to Tenants; but a favourable Opportunity now offers for Sale of the Towns and Lands of Inniſcoffy and Old Towne, herein-after mentioned, at a high Price, which will raiſe Money ſufficient to pay off the ſaid Elizabeth O'Farrell's Mortgage, in caſe the Fee-ſimple and Inheritance thereof could be ſafely conveyed to the Purchaſer thereof; whereby not only a more ready Fund for the Payment of the Debts affecting the ſaid Lands, and for the Security of the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald's Perſon, would be provided, but the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald would be enabled to put the Lands in the ſaid former Act mentioned into proper Condition and Repair, whereby the ſame would alſo become ſaleable, and the many heavy Incumbrances which now affect the ſaid Lands be paid off and diſcharged; but the ſaid Lands herein-after mentioned cannot be mortgaged or ſold without diveſting the Reverſion in Fee thereof out of His Majeſty, in like Manner as in and by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act of Parliament was done, with reſpect to the Lands therein compriſed, and which ſaid laſt mentioned Act, paſſed by the Grace and Favour of His Majeſty, extended to the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, the Grand Nephew and Heir of the ſaid Patentee, who was then, and now is, One of His Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects: Therefore, Your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subject, the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, doth moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Remainder or Reverſion in Fee-ſimple, expectant on the Determination of the ſeveral Entails herein-before mentioned, and all other Eſtates, Right, Title, and Intereſt, of and in the Towns and Lands of Enniſcoffy, otherwiſe Inniſcoffy, otherwiſe Iniſhcoffy, otherwiſe Iniſcooffy, otherwiſe Iniſhco, and Old Towne, lying and being in the Barony of Fertullagh, and County of Weſtmeath, in the Kingdom of Ireland, which, in and by virtue of the before mentioned Acts of Parliament, is now veſted in His preſent Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall be hereby diveſted, and the ſame is hereby diveſted out of the Crown, ſo that His preſent Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or any of them, or any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, claiming or to claim, by, from, or under the ſeveral Acts of Parliament before mentioned and recited, by reaſon of the Forfeiture as aforeſaid, or otherwiſe howſoever, ſhall not, nor may, from and after the paſſing of this Act, have any Right, Title, or Intereſt therein or thereunto; and that the ſaid Reverſion or Remainder in Fee-ſimple, and other the Eſtates and Intereſts of and in the Lands and Hereditaments herein-before mentioned, ſhall, from and immediately after the paſſing of this Act, be veſted in, and the ſame are hereby from henceforth veſted in the ſaid Gerald Fitzgerald, his Heirs and Aſſigns, for ever.

Papiſts incapable to purchaſe Lands.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Papiſt, and Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, ſhall be diſabled and made incapable to purchaſe, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name or Names of any other Perſon or Perſons, to his or her Uſe, or in Truſt for him or her, any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premiſes aforeſaid, or any Rents, Profits, Terms, or Intereſts, in or out of the ſame; and that all and ſingular Eſtates, Terms, and other Intereſts, and Profits whatſoever, in or out of the Premiſes, and all Conveyances and Declarations of Truſt concerning the ſame, which ſhall be made, ſuffered, or done, to or for the Uſe, Benefit, or Behoof of any ſuch Papiſt, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid-recited Acts of Parliament, ſhall be utterly void and of no Effect, to all Intents, Purpoſes, and Conſtructions whatſoever.

Nothing contained to prejudice the Intereſt of the Repreſentatives of Thomas Bomford.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall in any-wiſe affect, impeach, or prejudice, or in any-wiſe ſtrengthen, inforce, or confirm, or be conſtrued, deemed, or taken to affect, impeach, or prejudice, or to ſtrengthen, inforce, or confirm any Right, Title, or Intereſt, which the Repreſentatives of Thomas Bomford, late of Rathingſtown, in the County of Meath, Eſquire, deceaſed, now have or claim, or which they ſhall, at any Time hereafter, have or claim, in or to a certain Grant or Leaſe, bearing Date the Twentieth Day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-two, made by Gerald Fitzgerald of Rathrone, in the County of Meath, Eſquire, to the ſaid Thomas Bomford, of the Town, Town-land, and Land called Enniſcoffy and Old Towne before mentioned, with the Appurtenances, or any Part thereof; but the Right, Title, and Intereſt of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Thomas Bomford, deceaſed, in and to the ſaid Grant or Leaſe, and the Benefit thereof, ſhall from henceforth be and remain in the ſame State, Plight, and Condition, and no other, as the ſame was before the paſſing of this Act.

Saving Clauſe.

IV. Saving to the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, all ſuch Crown-rents, Quit-rents, Compoſitions, Services, and Duties, as are due and payable, and ought to be paid and performed to His Majeſty, on account of the Premiſes, or any Part thereof; and ſaving alſo to all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, all ſuch Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim, and Demand whatſoever, of, in, to, or out of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, herein-before mentioned, or any of them, with the Appurtenances, or any Part thereof, (other than and except our Sovereign Lord the King's Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the Truſtees named in and by the ſaid Acts of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the late King William the Third, and their Heirs), as they, every, or any of them, have or had, or might have had, therein or thereto, as fully to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the Reverſion of the ſaid Towns, Town-lands, or Lands, had never been veſted in the Crown, or as if this Act had never been paſſed; any Thing herein contained to the Contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Clauſes in Act 11 Geo. III. inflicting Penalties on Makers of Low Wines, &c. not to extend to Millers.

CAP. VII.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act, made in the Seventh Year of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned, for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than One Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain; and for ſettling certain Doubts and Diſputes which have ariſen upon the ſaid Act of Parliament.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Seventh Year of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain; and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company, as is therein mentioned, for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than One Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas ſeized and condemned from being conſumed in Great Britain; amongſt other Things reciting, That the taking off the Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight, then payable as therein is mentioned, upon Black and Singlo Teas, and the allowing, upon the Exportation of all Teas which ſhall be exported to Ireland, and His Majeſty's Plantations in America, the whole of the Duty paid upon the Importation thereof into this Kingdom, appear to be the moſt probable and expedient Means of extending the Conſumption of Teas legally imported within this Kingdom, and of increaſing the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and to His Majeſty's Plantations in America, which are now chiefly furniſhed by Foreigners in a Courſe of illicit Trade; and further reciting, That the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies are willing and deſirous to indemnify the Publick in ſuch Manner as is therein-after provided, with reſpect to any Diminution of the Revenue which ſhould or might happen from this Experiment, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That for and during the Space of Five Years, to be computed from the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, the ſaid Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight upon Teas ſhall not be paid for or in reſpect of any Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Teas, commonly called Black Teas, or any Teas known by the Denomination of Singlo Teas, which ſhall be cleared for Conſumption within Great Britain out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid United Company, but that all ſuch Teas ſo to be cleared, whether the ſame have been already or ſhall be hereafter ſold by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhall be, and are thereby freed and diſcharged, during the ſaid Term, from the ſaid Inland Duty: And it is thereby, amongſt other Things, further enacted, That for and during the like Space of Five Years, to be computed from the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas exported from this Kingdom, as Merchandiſe to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, the whole Duties of Cuſtoms payable upon the Importation of ſuch Teas: And for making good any Diminution which might happen in the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, by the Diſcontinuance of the ſaid Duty, and the Allowance of the ſaid Drawback, during the Term aforeſaid, it was further enacted, That on or before the Firſt Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and on or before the Firſt Day of September, in each of the Four ſucceeding Years, a true and exact Account ſhall be taken, ſtated, and made up, by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, of the Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for and in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, and alſo of the Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe, upon Teas cleared out of the Warehouſes belonging to the ſaid Company within the Year, ending the Fifth Day of July immediately preceding the taking, ſtating, and making up ſuch Accounts; and that a Sum, which ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms, paid upon the Importation of Teas which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for Five Years, preceding the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſhall be deducted from the Total of the Net Produce, ſo ſtated, of the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe in the ſaid Account for the Year ending the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and for each of the ſaid Four ſucceeding Years reſpectively: And if, after ſuch Deduction ſhall have been made, the remaining Sum ſhall not amount to the Sum as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for and in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, and alſo to the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe, upon Teas cleared out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, on an Average for Five Years, preceding the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, from Time to Time, as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall ſo happen, the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, within Forty Days after a Copy of ſuch yearly Account reſpectively ſhall have been delivered, their Chairman, Deputy Chairman, Secretary, Caſhier, or Accomptant-general, ſhall advance and pay for every ſuch Year reſpectively, into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, for His Majeſty's Uſe, ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall, with the Monies remaining in ſuch reſpective annual Account, after the Deduction aforeſaid ſhall have been made, amount to ſuch a Sum as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Produce of all the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon Teas, on the ſaid Average of Five Years, preceding the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, ſo as the Money to be paid by the ſaid Company, or their Succeſſors, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, ſhall not, in any One of the ſaid Five Years, exceed ſuch a Sum, as ſhall be equal to the annual Net Amount of the ſaid Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight, upon Teas cleared from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company for Conſumption within Great Britain, and alſo to the annual Net Amount of the Duties of Cuſtoms, paid on the Importation of Teas, which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for Five Years, preceding the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven: And whereas the annual Net Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms, paid upon the Importation of Teas, which were exported to Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, upon an Average for Five Years, preceding the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, is found to amount to the Sumof Thirty-two thouſand three hundred and two Pounds, Four Shillings and Sixpence, and the annual Net Produce of all the Duties of Cuſtoms, for or in reſpect of Teas ſold by the ſaid Company, together with the annnal Net Produce of the Duties of Exciſe upon Teas, cleared out from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, on an Average of Five Years, preceding the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, is found to amount to the Sum of Seven hundred and eighteen thouſand, nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, One Shilling, and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny: And whereas, if the ſaid Sum of Thirty-two thouſand three hundred and two Pounds, Four Shillings and Sixpence, ſhould be deducted from the Total of the Net Produce of the Cuſtoms of Exciſe, upon Teas ſold by the ſaid United Company, and cleared out of their Warehouſes, after paying ſuch Drawbacks as are allowed by the ſaid in-part recited Act, in the Year ending on the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and in each of the ſaid Four ſucceeding Years; and, if the ſaid United Company ſhould be bound to pay ſuch Sum, as will make the Sum which ſhall remain after ſuch Deduction equal to the ſaid Sum of Seven hundred and eighteen thouſand nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, One Shilling, and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny, Your Majeſty would probably, in every of the ſaid Years, receive from the ſaid United Company a greater Sum of Money, in the Name of Indemnity, than the actual Deficiency of Your Majeſty's Revenue, computed upon the Average in the ſaid recited Act mentioned, would amount to; and, on the other Hand, if the ſaid Deduction ſhould be made from the ſaid Total of the Produce of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, upon Teas ſold by and cleared out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid United Company for the Year ending on the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and for each of the ſaid Four ſucceeding Years, before paying or deducting ſuch Drawbacks as are allowed by the ſaid recited Act; and if the ſaid Company ſhould only pay ſuch Sum, as would make the Sum, in ſuch Caſe, remaining equal to the ſaid Sum of Seven hundred and eighteen thouſand nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, One Shilling, and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny, Your Majeſty would probably, in every of the ſaid Years, receive leſs than the actual Deficiency of Your Majeſty's Revenue, computed upon the Average in the ſaid Act mentioned, would amount to; ſo that the Rule preſcribed by the ſaid Act, for eſtimating the Indemnity therein provided, is inadequate and ineffectual, whereupon Doubts and Diſputes have ariſen between the Officers of Your Majeſty's Revenue and the ſaid United Company concerning the Manner of aſcertaining the ſame: And whereas it appears to have been the true Intent and Meaning of the ſaid Act, that the ſaid United Company ſhould fully indemnify Your Majeſty for any Diminution of Your Majeſty's Revenue, which might happen from the Experiment in the ſaid Act mentioned, by paying to Your Majeſty ſuch Sum of Money as ſhould be ſufficient to make the Net Produce of the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, upon Teas ſold by and cleared out of the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company in the ſaid Year, to be computed from the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven, after paying the ſaid Drawbacks allowed by the ſaid Act, and in each of the ſaid Four ſucceeding Years, after the like Payment of the ſaid Drawbacks, equal to the ſaid Sum of Seven hundred and eighteen thouſand nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, One Shilling, and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny, and the ſaid United Company are willing, and have agreed to indemnify Your Majeſty accordingly, provided the ſeveral Sums ſo to be computed may be accepted in Satisfaction and Diſcharge of their Agreement, and of the Act herein-before recited; may it therefore pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be declared and enacted; and be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That inſtead of the Rate of Indemnity provided by the ſaid Act, and to be computed as therein is mentioned, the ſaid United Company ſhall be liable to pay and make good to His Majeſty for the Year, ending on the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-eight, and for each of the ſaid Four ſucceeding Years, ſuch Sum of Money as, together with the Net Produce of Cuſtoms upon Teas ſo by the ſaid Company, and the Net Produce of Exciſe upon Teas cleared out from the Warehouſes of the ſaid Company, ſhall, in and for each of the ſaid Years, amount to the Sum of Seven hundred and eighteen thouſand nine hundred and ſixty-ſix Pounds, One Shilling, and Two-fifth Parts of a Penny, and no more.

Inſtead of the Rate of Indemnity, provided thereby, the United Company ſhall pay annually to His Majeſty for each ſucceeding Year ſince 1768, 718,966 l. 1 s. and 2-5th Parts of a Penny.

II. WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Fifteenth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for ſettling the draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That William, then Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of Francis Earl of Bedford, and the ſaid Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid Act is contained, ſhould be a Body Politick and Corporate, and have Succeſſion for ever, by the Name of The Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens; with Power to lay Taxes upon the Ninety-five thouſand Acres allotted to them as a Recompence for draining the ſaid Great Level, (Twelve thouſand Acres whereof had been deſigned and intended for His late Majeſty King Charles the Firſt, and had been ſet forth by Bounds in Severalty) for the Support, Maintenance, and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and to levy the ſame, with Penalties for Nonpayment; and to do all other Things, in order to the Support, Maintenance, and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and Works made, and to be made, in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid Act is mentioned: And whereas by another Act, made in the Twentieth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the taxing and aſſeſſing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the Fens, it was enacted, That Eighty-three thouſand Acres, Parcel of the ſaid Ninety-five thouſand Acres, ſhould, from Time to Time, be taxed and aſſeſſed by a gradual Acre-tax of different Sorts and Values of Lands; and the ſaid Eighty-three thouſand Acres have always ſince been taxed by a gradual Acre-tax, according to the Degrees and Proportions ſo ſet out and allotted, and the ſaid Twelve thouſand Acres at a Medium of ſuch Tax: And whereas by another Act, made in the Twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for diſcharging the Corporation of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, from a Debt due to the Duke of Bedford and Earl of Lincoln; and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the ſaid Great Level, to raiſe Money to diſcharge the Proportion of the ſaid North Level in the Debts of the ſaid Corporation; and for aſcertaining and appropriating the Taxes to be laid on the ſaid North Level, and for the more effectual draining and preſerving the ſaid North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland, taking Notice, amongſt other Things, That, at a Court of the ſaid Corporation, held the Tenth Day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred and ninety-ſeven, the ſaid Corporation declared, that the ſeveral Parts of the ſaid Great Level ſhould be diſtinguiſhed by the ſeveral Names of The North Level, Middle Level, and South Level, reſpectively, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the ſaid North Level, or the Lands, Tenements, Rents, Taxes, and Revenues thereof, or of any Part thereof, ſhould not be ſubject or liable to the Payment of any Debt, or Sum or Sums of Money, which ſhould at any Time thereafter be contracted, taken up, or borrowed, by the ſaid Corporation, for or upon account of the ſaid Middle or South Levels, or either of them; and that it ſhould be lawful for the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Conſervators, or any Seven or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be Two, from Time to Time, to borrow upon Bonds, any Sum or Sums of Money which they ſhould judge neceſſary for the Uſe of the ſaid Middle and South Levels, or either of them, ſo as by the borrowing of ſuch Sum or Sums the Debt of the ſaid Corporation, upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels, ſhould not be at any Time made to exceed in the Whole the Sum of Thirty-two thouſand Pounds; declaring, in the Bonds to be given for ſuch Sum or Sums, that the Monies ſecured thereby was due and owing upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels; and that the Rents, Taxes, and Revenues, of the ſaid Middle and South Levels ſhould be, and they were thereby made a Security for Repayment of the Sums ſo to be borrowed, with legal or leſs Intereſt for the ſame, as ſhould be agreed upon between the ſaid Corporation and the Perſon or Perſons lending ſuch Money: And it was thereby further enacted, That all and ſingular the Rents, Taxes, and Sums of Money, to be received, raiſed, or levied, by the ſaid Corporation, from, upon, or upon account of, ſuch Part of the ſaid Ninety-five thouſand Acres as lie within the ſaid Middle and South Levels, or either of them, ſhould be charged and chargeable, in the firſt Place, with the Payment of the aforeſaid Debt of Twenty-ſeven thouſand four hundred and forty Pounds, and of ſuch other Sums of Money as ſhould be ſo borrowed upon account of the ſaid Middle and South Levels, and of the Intereſt of ſuch Debts and Sums of Money; No Fire nor lighted Candle ſhall be allowed on Board Ships between Nov. 1. and March 1.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Maſter, or other Perſon or Perſons having the Rule and Command of any Ship or Veſſel wintering in the ſaid Haven as aforeſaid, or lying in the ſaid Haven at any Time between the Firſt Day of November and the Firſt Day of March in any Year, ſhall make, uſe, permit, or ſuffer, any Fire or lighted Candle to be in ſuch Ship or Veſſel lying from the South End of the ſaid Ballaſt Quay upwards in the ſaid Haven, on any Pretence whatſoever, (ſuch Ships which ſhall have Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe lawfully boarded on them by the Direction of the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe belonging to the Port or Town of Great Yarmouth only excepted), ſuch Maſter, or other Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Ten Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain; One Moiety thereof ſhall be paid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall give Information thereof upon Oath, before the Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, of the ſaid Borough for the Time being reſpectively, and the other Moiety to be paid to the Chamberlains of the ſaid Borough, for the Uſe of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the ſaid Borough of Great Yarmouth; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Perſons appointed to keep Watch as aforeſaid, at any Time or Times to go on Board any Ship or Veſſel lying or wintering in the ſaid Haven as aforeſaid, to view, remove, or extinguiſh any lighted Candles or Fire which ſhall be on Board ſuch Ship or Veſſel.

Maſter, &c. mooring Ships ſo as to prejudice the Haven,

XXXV. And whereas the lying or mooring Ships in the ſaid Haven, with their Sides towards the ſaid Quay, has been found prejudicial to the ſaid Haven, by obſtructing the free Current and Force of the Water; and Ships are often moored or placed in the ſaid Haven in ſuch a Situation as to impede and obſtruct the Engineers and Workmen employed in depthening the ſaid Haven; for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Ship or Veſſel ſhall lie or be moored in the ſaid Haven with her Side towards the Quay longer than One Tide, unleſs upon ſome unavoidable Occaſion; nor ſhall any Ship or Veſſel lie or be moored in the ſaid Haven in ſuch a Situation as to impede or obſtruct the Work of depthening the ſaid Haven by the Engineers and Workmen employed therein; and the Mayor, or Deputy Mayor of the ſaid Borough, or any Two of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, ſhall, from Time to Time, take ſuch Order therein as to him or them ſhall appear juſt and reaſonable; and in caſe any Maſter, or other Perſon having the Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall neglect or refuſe to obey the Order of the ſaid Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, or any Two of the ſaid Commiſſioners, for altering the Situation of any ſuch Ships or Veſſels, the ſaid Maſters, or other Perſons, as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Neglect or Refuſal, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor leſs than Forty Shillings, to be applied towards the Maintenance and Repair of the ſaid Haven; and it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, of the ſaid Borough, or any Two of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to levy the ſaid Forfeiture by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Maſter, or other Perſon having the Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Anchors and Cables, or other Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereof.

XXXVI. And

The Duty of the Pier Maſter, and his accuſtomed Fee for that Duty.

XXXVI. And whereas it is the Duty of the Pier Maſter for the Time being of the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth to attend at all proper Times on the Pier Heads to regulate and direct the Uſes of the Crabs and Capſterns there for the Aſſiſtance and Convenience of Ships coming into the ſaid Haven, and alſo to regulate and direct the Mooring of the ſaid Ships at the Haven's Mouth, which has at all Times been found very uſeful and neceſſary, and the Paſſage of Ships over the Bar into the ſaid Haven is thereby rendered more ſecure and convenient, for which the ſaid Pier Maſter hath received as a Fee or Reward the Sum of One Shilling of the Maſter, or other Perſon having the Rule or Command of every Ship or Veſſel coming into the ſaid Haven; and it is reaſonable that the ſame ſhould continue to be paid to the ſaid Pier Maſter for his Trouble and Attendance as aforeſaid; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, every Maſter, or other Perſon having the Rule or Command of any Ship or Veſſel coming into the ſaid Haven, ſhall pay into the Hands of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be appointed Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers of the Duties to be collected by virtue of this Act, the ſaid Fee or Sum of One Shilling, for the Uſe of the ſaid Pier Maſter, for and in conſideration of his Trouble and Attendance as aforeſaid; and in caſe any Maſter, or other Perſon having the Rule or Command of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay the ſaid Fee or Sum of One Shilling to ſuch Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall and may be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Mayor or Deputy Mayor of the ſaid Borough for the Time being, in ſuch Manner as is herein-before directed and appointed for levying and recovering the ſeveral Duties, Sum and Sums of Money, herein-before ordered and appointed to be paid by the Authority of this Act; and it ſhall not be lawful for any Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, of the Duties by this Act impoſed, to give any Certificate or Certificates that the Duties are paid, or ſecured to be paid, until the ſaid Fee or Sum of One Shilling ſhall be received by him or them for the Uſe of the ſaid Pier Maſter; any Thing in this Act contained to the Contrary hereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

The ſame Fee as formerly to be paid to the Pier Maſter, and how to be recovered.

Pier Maſter neglecting his Duty, to forfeit not exceeding 40 s.

XXXVII. Provided always, That in caſe the ſaid Pier Maſter ſhall refuſe or neglect to attend at all proper Times, and to do and perform the Duty of Pier Maſter as he ought to do, and ſhall be convicted thereof before the ſaid Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, of the ſaid Borough of Great Yarmouth for the Time being, or any Two of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, (which Oath ſuch Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, or Two Commiſſioners, are hereby impowered to adminiſter), every ſuch Pier Maſter ſhall, for every ſuch Refuſal, Neglect, or Non-performance of his Duty, as aforeſaid, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor leſs than Ten Shillings, for every ſuch Offence, to be applied towards the Maintenance and Repair of the ſaid Haven, after deducting the Charges of recovering thereof; and in caſe of Refuſal to pay the ſaid Penalty, the ſame may be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Pier Maſter, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, or under the Hands and Seals of ſuch Two Commiſſioners.

Injuring the Haven, by laying Ballaſt, &c. on the Quays, how to be prevented.

XXXVIII. And whereas the laying Ballaſt, Earth, Sand, Rubbiſh, or Stones, upon the Quays near the ſaid Haven, and ſuffering the ſame to continue there, hath been found very injurious to the ſaid Haven, and to contribute much to the filling up the ſame, as great Part of ſuch Ballaſt, Earth, Sand, Rubbiſh, and Stones, often unavoidably fall into the ſaid Haven, or is driven therein by Winds, ſo that it is very difficult to preſerve a ſufficient Depth of Water for Ships to come up to the Quays: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall lay any Ballaſt, Earth, Sand, Rubbiſh, or Stones, on the ſaid Quays, within Ten Feet of the Quay Head, for the Purpoſe of ballaſting Ships, or for any other Purpoſe whatſoever, (except for making or repairing Quays, and during ſuch Time only as ſuch Quays are making or repairing), and ſhall ſuffer the ſame to continue there for the Space of Seven Days, and ſhall be thereof convicted before the Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, of the ſaid Borough for the Time being, upon the Oath of One or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, nor leſs than Ten Shillings; to be applied towards the Repair and Maintenance of the ſaid Haven.

Money directed to be paid for keeping Watchmen, &c. and alſo Penalties, how to be recovered.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe the Maſter, or other Perſon or Perſons having the Rule or Command of any Ship or Veſſel lying in the ſaid Haven, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be ordered and appointed to be paid for keeping Watchmen and Clappermen as aforeſaid, or any Forfeitures or Penalties which ſhall be incurred by reaſon of any Offence or Offences againſt this Act, (the Manner of levying and recovering whereof is not herein-before particularly directed), it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Mayor, or Deputy Mayor, of the ſaid Borough reſpectively, from Time to Time, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, and alſo all ſuch Forfeitures and Penalties to be incurred as aforeſaid, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing to pay ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, or any or the Penalties or Forfeitures which ſhall be incurred as aforeſaid, together with the reaſonable Charges of levying the ſame.

Commencement and Continuance of this Act.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall commence and take Place from and after the ſaid Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, and ſhall continue in Force for and during the Term of Twenty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Not to prejudice the Tolls, &c. payable to the Mayor, &c. by Grants,

XLI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not ſuſpend or extinguiſh the Payment of ſuch Port Duties and Tolls, as the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of the ſaid Borough of Great Yarmouth are intitled to have and receive by immemorial Cuſtom or Uſage, which for Twenty Years laſt paſt have been paid and received, and which they are intitled to recover by Action at Law, without ſhewing or alleging any Benefit which they are bound to perform to the Publick, or any Cauſe or Conſideration whatſoever, whereon to found their preſcriptive Right thereto; but all ſuch Port Duties and Tolls as aforeſaid ſhall and may be recovered and received by the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, in ſuch Manner as the ſame have heretofore been recovered and received, or might have been recovered and received, in caſe this Act, or any former Act relating to the ſaid Haven and Piers, had not been made.

Limitation of Actions.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done, or to be done, in purſuance of this Act, or any-wiſe in relation to the Premiſes, every ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within Six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid and brought in the County of Norfolk, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every ſuch Action or Suit, may plead the General Iſſue, Not Guilty, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſo done; or if any ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the ſame, or ſhall be brought in any other County than as before directed, then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Actions; or if a Verdict ſhall paſs againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs; or if, upon Demurrer, Judgement ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Coſts of Suit in any other Caſe by Law.

Publick Act.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. XVI.

An Act for deepening, cleanſing, ſcouring, preſerving, and maintaining, the Harbour of Port Glaſgow, for enlarging and improving the Quays and Piers, for erecting new Breaſts, Jettees, and Piers, and for regulating Ships, Lighters, and other Veſſels, trading into and going out of the ſaid Harbour; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Harbour of Port Glaſgow, in the County of Renfrew, has of late Years, by the Flux and Reflux of the Tide, and various other Cauſes, been greatly choaked, and filled up with Mud and Dirt, which hinders Veſſels of Burthen from getting into the Piers and Quays, and expoſes the Shipping lying in the ſaid Harbour to many Dangers and Inconveniencies: And whereas the Trade of the City of Glaſgow, and Port of Port Glaſgow, hath of late Years greatly increaſed, and the Ships and Veſſels now belonging to, and trading to and from the ſaid Port, are more numerous, and of larger Dimenſions than heretofore: And whereas the Quays and Piers already made and conſtructed, by and at the Expence of the Magiſtrates and City Council of Glaſgow, within the ſaid Port and Harbour, are not ſufficient for the Reception and convenient lying of the Ships and Veſſels reſorting thereto, and for the requiſite and convenient Diſpatch in lading and unlading the ſame, which render the deepening, cleanſing, and ſcouring of the ſaid Harbour, and the building and erecting new and additional Piers and Quays, highly neceſſary, and the ſame will be of great publick Utility, as well as of Advantage to the Trade of the ſaid City and Port: And as the deepening, cleanſing, and ſcouring, of the ſaid Harbour, and the building and erecting the ſaid new and additional Piers and Quays, and other proper and neceſſary Works, will be attended with conſiderable Expence, which the ordinary Revenue of the ſaid City cannot defray; and as the ſame cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Magiſtrates and City Council of Glaſgow, and their Succeſſors in Office, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall appoint, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, as they ſhall ſee Occaſion, to deepen, clean, ſcour, and preſerve the ſaid Harbour of Port Glaſgow, and the Improvements and Additions which ſhall be made thereto by virtue of this preſent Act, from Dirt and Mud, and other Obſtructions whatſoever; and alſo to build and erect, or cauſe to be built and erected therein, (except as herein-after is excepted) Piers and Quays of proper Dimenſions, particularly a Mid Quay or Pier in the preſent Harbour, and another Quay or Pier at and from a Point of Land called The Black Houſe Nook, near the old Caſtle of Newark, and to carry out the ſame from the ſaid Point into the Sea; and likewiſe ſuch and ſo many other Quays, Piers, Jettees, and Breaſts, in the open Harbour or old Bay of Newark, and other neceſſary Works within the ſaid Harbour and Bay, for the Reception of Ships and Veſſels reſorting to the ſaid Port and Harbour, and for the more convenient lading and unlading of ſuch Ships and Veſſels of ſuch Dimenſions, and to be executed in ſuch Manner as the Commiſſioners herein-after named, or any Ten or more of them, at a General Meeting aſſembled, in Manner as herein-after directed, ſhall judge to be neceſſary and expedient.

No Pier, etc. to be built eaſtward of Black Houſe Nook.

II. XLV. And whereas it may happen that ſeveral Perſons who may claim and be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, are ſeiſed of an Eſtate Tail, in ſome Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; which Entail, with the Remainders thereupon expectant, they have by Law Power to defeat and bar, either by levying a Fine or Fines, ſuffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries, or by Surrender or Surrenders thereof, whereby ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſaid Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up, according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo ſeiſed as aforeſaid, and who ſhall be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, ſhall, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever in Law, be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be ſeiſed of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Fee; provided the ſame ſhall be delivered up to the Creditor or Creditors of every ſuch Priſoner, in the ſame Manner as if ſuch Perſon or Perſons had actually levied a Fine, ſuffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, or made a Surrender or Surrenders thereof, and thereby had become ſeiſed in Fee; any Law, or Conſtruction of Law, to the Contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Aſſignees may apply for further Examination of Priſoner, touching the Diſcovery of his Effects, etc.

XLVI. And whereas many Priſoners who may be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, have been great Dealers, or otherwiſe engaged in large Tranſactions, whereby they may be intitled to ſundry and great Debts and Demands of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of Eſtates, ſubject and liable to Mortgages, Judgements, or other Incumbrances, or to Reverſions, Remainders, or other contingent Eſtates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Truſts or Intereſts in Eſtates, both Real and Perſonal, which may not be ſufficiently deſcribed or diſcovered in the Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in, upon Oath, by the Priſoner to be diſcharged as aforeſaid, or which may want his Aid or Aſſiſtance to adjuſt, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Aſſignees of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, who ſhall obtain his, her, or their Diſcharge, in purſuance of this Act, or any other Perſon or Perſons duly authoriſed by them for that Purpoſe, from Time to Time, to apply to any Two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be then reſiding, thereby deſiring that ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects; whereupon ſuch Juſtices ſhall ſend for, or call before them, ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, by ſuch Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they ſhall think fit; and, upon ſuch Priſoner's appearing, he ſhall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwiſe, as to ſuch Matters and Things as ſuch Aſſignee ſhall deſire, relating to the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners: And if any Priſoner or Priſoners (on Payment or Tender of Payment of ſuch reaſonable Charges as ſuch Juſtices ſhall judge ſufficient) ſhall neglect or refuſe to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuſe, to be made known to ſuch Juſtices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or to anſwer to all ſuch Queſtions as by ſuch Juſtices ſhall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Diſcovery of his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects ſo veſted, or intended to be veſted, in ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in ſuch Aſſignees as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Juſtices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſo offending as aforeſaid, and him, her, or them, to commit to the County Gaol, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until ſuch Time as he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſubmit him, her, or themſelves, to ſuch Juſtices, and anſwer upon Oath to all ſuch lawful Queſtions as ſhall by ſuch Juſtices be put to him, her, or them, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

and Juſtices may ſend for and examining the Priſoners accordingly.

Priſoners refuſing to appear, or to anſwer upon Oath, may be committed.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons who ſhall, within Twelve Months after the Diſcharge of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, voluntarily come in and make a Diſcovery of any Part of ſuch Debtor or Debtors Real or Perſonal Eſtate, as ſhall not be compriſed in ſuch Schedule as aforeſaid, before any Juſtices aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed after the Rate of Twenty Pounds per Centum, out of the Net Produce of ſuch Debtor or Debtors Eſtate, which ſhall be recovered on ſuch Diſcovery, and which ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo diſcovering the ſame by the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate and Effects.

20 l. per Cent. allowed on diſcovering within 12 Months any Part of the Priſoner's Eſtate not returned in the Schedule.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithſtanding the Diſcharge of any Priſoner or Priſoners by virtue of this Act, if it ſhall hereafter appear the ſame was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any ſuch Priſoner was not true; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be void and of none Effect.

Diſcharge obtained fraudulently, void.

XLIX. And, for the better Diſcovery of the Eſtate and Effects of any Priſoner who ſhall be diſcharged by virtue of this Act, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have accepted of any Truſt or Truſts, and ſhall wilfully conceal or protect any Eſtate, Real or Perſonal, of any ſuch Priſoner from his Creditors, and ſhall not, within Thirty Days after any Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſhall, in purſuance of this Act, be choſe of any ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate, diſcover and diſcloſe to ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſuch Truſt and Eſtate in Writing, and deliver up or make over the ſame to ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and alſo Double the Value of the Eſtate, either Real or Perſonal, ſo concealed, to and for the Uſe of the Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner; to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in the Name or Names of the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate, together with Treble Coſts of Suit.

Perſons concealing any Eſtate or Effects of the Priſoner, forfeit 100 l. and Double Value, with Treble Coſts of Suit.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be lawful, at all Times hereafter, for any Aſſignee or Aſſignees of the Eſtate or Effects of any Priſoner or Priſoners, who ſhall be choſe in purſuance of this Act, by and with the Conſent of the major Part in Value of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoner's Creditors, who ſhall be preſent at a Meeting to be had on Twenty-one Days publick Notice being previouſly given for the Purpoſe hereafter mentioned in the London Gazette, if the Priſoner was in Cuſtody in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then alſo in ſome News-paper which ſhall be publiſhed in the County, City, or Place, in or near which any ſuch Perſon ſhall have been in Gaol, to make Compoſition with any Perſon or Perſons, Debtors or Accountants to ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, where the ſame ſhall appear neceſſary or reaſonable; and to take ſuch reaſonable Part of any ſuch Debt as can, upon ſuch Compoſition, be gotten, in full Diſcharge of ſuch Debts and Accounts; and alſo to ſubmit any Difference or Diſpute between ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and any Perſon or Perſons, for or on Account, or by Reaſon or Means of any Matter, Cauſe, or Thing, relating to ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners Eſtate or Effects, or to any Debt or Debts due, or claimed to be due, to or from ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators to be choſen by the ſaid Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and the major Part in Value of ſuch Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they ſhall have no Difference, and to perform the Award of ſuch Arbitrators, or of any Umpire to be choſen by them; or otherwiſe to ſettle and agree the Matters in Difference and Diſpute between them, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Aſſignee or Aſſignees, with ſuch Conſent as aforeſaid, ſhall think fit, and can agree, and the ſame ſhall be binding to all the Creditors of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners; and every ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they ſhall fairly do in the Premiſes, in purſuance of this Act.

Aſſignees, with Conſent of the Majority in Value of the Creditors, may compound for Debts due to the Priſoner's Eſtate; and may ſubmit any Diſpute relating thereto to Arbitration; or otherwiſe may ſettle and agree the ſame as they think fit.

LI. And, to the Intent and Purpoſe that the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners as ſhall be diſcharged by virtue of this Act may be duly and faithfully applied for the Benefit of his, her, or their real Creditors, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Courts at Weſtminſter, and the Courts of Great Seſſion in Wales, and the Principality of Cheſter, and the Counties Palatine of Lancaſter and Durham, reſpectively, from whence any Proceſs iſſued upon which any Aſſignees may be complained againſt for Unfaithfulneſs, Fraud, Miſmanagement, or other Miſbehaviour, ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners was or were committed, or where the Proceſs iſſued out of any other Court, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, or of Great Seſſions aforeſaid, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, or any One of them, from Time to Time, upon the Petition of any ſuch Priſoner, or the Creditor or Creditors of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, complaining of any Inſufficiency, Fraud, Miſmanagement, or other Miſbehaviour of any Aſſignee or Aſſignees of the Eſtate or Effects of any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, to ſummon all Parties concerned; and, upon hearing the Parties concerned therein, to make and give ſuch Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal or Diſplacing ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and the appointing any new Aſſignee or Aſſignees in the Place or Stead of ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſo to be removed or diſplaced, or for the prudent, juſt, or equitable Management or Diſtribution of the Eſtate and Effects of any ſuch Priſoner for the Benefit of the reſpective Creditors, as the ſaid Courts or Judges reſpectively ſhall think fit; and in caſe of the Removal or Diſplacing of any Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and the appointing of any new Aſſignee or Aſſignees, the Eſtate or Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall, from thenceforth, be diveſted out of the Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſo removed or diſplaced, and be veſted in, and delivered over to, ſuch new Aſſignee or Aſſignees, in the ſame Manner, and for the ſame Intents and Purpoſes, as the ſame were before veſted in the Aſſignee or Aſſignees firſt choſe as aforeſaid; any Thing in this Act contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

the Court thereupon is to ſummon the Parties, and make ſuch Orders therein as they ſhall think fit.

Where mutual Credit has been given, the Balance to be ſtated and allowed.

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where mutual Credit hath been given between any Priſoner or Priſoners, who ſhall be diſcharged in purſuance of this Act, and any other Perſon or Perſons, or Body Politick or Corporate, before the Delivery of ſuch Schedule or Inventory of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, upon Oath, as aforeſaid, the reſpective Aſſignee and Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners is and are hereby authoriſed and required, on his and their Parts, to ſtate and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned; and nothing more ſhall be deemed to be veſted in ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees under ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, as the Eſtate or Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, than what ſhall appear to be juſtly due to him, her, or them reſpectively, as and for the Balance of ſuch Account when truly ſtated.

Priſoners, for not paying Money awarded under Submiſſions to Arbitration; for not paying Coſts; and upon Writ of Excommunicato Capiendo, &c. are intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

LIII. And whereas many Perſons are often committed on Attachments, for not paying Money awarded to be paid under Submiſſions to Arbitration by Rules of Court, or under Submiſſions to Arbitration Bonds, and which Submiſſions have been made Rules of the Court, in purſuance of an Act paſſed in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of William the Third, for determining Differences by Arbitration; and likewiſe for not paying of Coſts duly and regularly taxed and allowed by the proper Officer, after proper Demands made for that Purpoſe; and alſo upon any Writ of Excommunicato Capiendo, or other Proceſs for, or grounded on, the Nonpayment of Coſts or Expences in any Cauſe or Proceeding in any Eccleſiaſtical Court; it is hereby declared and enacted, That all ſuch Perſons are and ſhall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, on and ſubject to the ſame Terms and Conditions as are herein expreſſed and declared with reſpect to Priſoners for Debt only.

Priſoners upon Proceſs out of Courts of Conſcience, to have the Benefit of this Act.

LIV. And whereas great Numbers of poor People have been, and are now, impriſoned for Debt upon Proceſſes iſſuing out of Courts of Conſcience; it is hereby enacted and declared, That all ſuch Priſoners ſhall be intitled to have the Benefit of this Act, and be diſcharged under the ſame, provided he, ſhe, or they, conform to the Directions herein before preſcribed, touching other Priſoners who ſhall be diſcharged by virtue of this Act.

Quaker's Affirmation to be taken in lieu of an Oath.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the ſolemn Affirmation of any Perſon being a Quaker ſhall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Perſon making ſuch Affirmation, who ſhall be convicted of wilful and falſe Affirming, ſhall incur and ſuffer ſuch and the ſame Penalties as are inflicted and impoſed by this Act upon Perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Perſons who took the Benefit of the Act of 9 Geo. III. excluded.

LVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who took the Benefit of an Act paſſed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the Relief of Inſolvent Debtors, ſhall have or receive any Benefit or Advantage of or under this Act, nor be deemed to be within the Intent and Meaning thereof, ſo as to be diſcharged under the ſame; any Thing herein-before contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Not to extend to Scotland.

LVII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

LVIII. And whereas the Priſoners confined in the Priſon of the King's Bench have lately unwarrantably, and without Colour of Law, conceived that Impriſonment for Debt at the Suit of a Subject was contrary to Law, and have therefore formed many dangerous Schemes to ſet themſelves at Liberty; and on the Nineteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, the Priſoners confined in the ſaid Priſon, to the Number of Sixty and upwards, did combine, conſpire, confederate, and agree together, by Force and Violence, to break the ſaid Priſon and eſcape thereout, and to enable them ſo to do, did clandeſtinely procure divers Weapons to be conveyed into the ſaid Priſon, and did on the ſaid Day ſuddenly and with Violence knock down the Turnkeys, and overpower them, and ſeize the Keys, and ſet open the Doors of the ſaid Priſons, and divers Priſoners eſcaped charged, with Debts to a large Amount, and although the Marſhal or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon uſed all poſſible Diligence to retake them, yet John M'Cullock, One of the ſaid Priſoners, eſcaped, and cannot be retaken; and on the Thirteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, a great many other Priſoners, to the Number of One hundred, did wickedly, and unknown to the ſaid Marſhal, conſpire together by Force and Violence again to break the ſaid

Priſon, and to eſcape thereout, and in order to effect the ſame, did clandeſtinely procure to be brought into the ſaid Priſon a great Number of Fire Arms, and other deſtructive Weapons, and the ſaid Priſoners in the Night of the ſaid Thirteenth Day of May, with the ſaid Fire Arms, and deſtructive Weapons, did ſuddenly and riotouſly break through Part of the Wall of the ſaid Priſon, and many Priſoners eſcaped thereout, charged with Debts to a large Amount, notwithſtanding the Marſhal and his Keepers, with all the Aſſiſtance he could raiſe, reſiſted the ſaid Eſcape at the Hazard of their Lives, but were overpowered by the Multitude and irreſiſtible Force of the ſaid Priſoners; and notwithſtanding the moſt immediate and freſh Purſuit was made, and every Effort uſed to retake the ſaid Priſoners, yet Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, Four of the ſaid Priſoners, made their Eſcape, and cannot be heard of or retaken; and many of the Plaintiffs, at whoſe Suit the ſaid Priſoners were detained, have brought Actions againſt the Marſhal or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon, charging him with negligent Eſcapes of the ſaid Priſoners, with a View and Deſign to recover of him the full Debt or Debts with which ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners ſtood charged, though they well know the ſaid Eſcapes happened from the unlawful Conſpiracy of the ſaid Priſoners, and from the irreſiſtible Violences aforeſaid: And whereas it would tend to the Ruin of the Marſhal or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon, and alſo to encourage the moſt dangerous and illegal Conſpiracies, if Plaintiffs were permitted to ſue for and recover the Sums with which ſuch Priſoners ſtood charged, as in Caſes of voluntary, wilful, and negligent Eſcapes; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Marſhal or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon ſhall be, and he is hereby indemnified, freed, and diſcharged of, and from and againſt the Eſcape of the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, and of, from, and againſt, all Action and Actions which now are, or ſhall or may be commenced or proſecuted againſt him, for or by reaſon or means of the ſaid Eſcape of the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, out of his Cuſtody on the ſaid Nineteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, or the ſaid Thirteenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, or in the Night-time of thoſe reſpective Days; and, at the Trial of any ſuch Action or Actions, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Marſhal of the ſaid Priſon to plead the General Iſſue, or ſuch other Pleas as he by Law is intitled to do, and to give this Act in Evidence, and thereupon the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch Action, ſhall be nonſuited; or in caſe of a Demurrer in any Action already brought, or hereafter to be brought, againſt the ſaid Marſhal or Keeper, for or by reaſon of the ſaid Eſcapes of the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, Judgement ſhall be given for the Defendant: Saving nevertheleſs, to each and every the Creditors of the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, all the Remedies againſt them the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, and his and their reſpective Lands and Tenements, Goods, Chattels, and Effects, as he, ſhe, or they, would have been intitled unto, in caſe the ſaid John M'Cullock, Daniel Quarrington, Daniel Scott, John Henry Maurer, and Iſaac de Rovery, had not eſcaped.

The Marſhal or Keeper indemnified from the Eſcape of Priſoners, and all Actions commenced relative thereto.

Perſons who ſhall wilfully ſet on fire, burn, or deſtroy Ships of War, or aſſiſt in ſo doing, in any of His Majeſty's Dock Yards, Arſenals, &c. or any Military, Naval, or Victualling Stores, &c. being thereof convicted, ſhall ſuffer Death, without Benefit of Clergy.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon who ſhall commit any of the Offences before mentioned, in any Place out of this Realm, may be indicted and tried for the ſame, either in any Shire or County within this Realm, in like Manner and Form, as if ſuch Offence had been committed within the ſaid Shire or County, or in ſuch Iſland, Country, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall have been actually committed, as His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, may deem moſt expedient for bringing ſuch Offender to Juſtice; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom notwithſtanding.

Perſons offending out of this Realm, may be tried in any Shire, &c. within the Realm.

Acts 29 and 33 Geo. II. and Act 2 Geo. III.

And whereas certain Acts were made in the Twenty-ninth and Thirty-third Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty, and in the Second Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more ſpeedy and effectually manning His Majeſty's Navy; and for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of ſuch Prize and Bounty Money as were thereby appropriated to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital: And whereas Doubts have ariſen, whether the Ships and Veſſels ſo taken previous to the Commencement of the late War, and the Booty or Plunder ſo taken on Shore by ſuch conjunct Force, and the ſaid Ships ſo taken in the Harbour of Havanna, and ſuch Ranſom, and alſo ſuch Donations as aforeſaid, can be conſidered as ſubject to ſuch Diſtribution as in the ſaid Acts are mentioned; and whether ſuch Shares thereof, as have been forfeited and unclaimed by the Officers and Seamen ſerving on Board His Majeſty's Navy, do belong to the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent; and whether ſuch Shares ought to be paid by the ſeveral Agents, or other Perſons in whoſe Hands the ſaid forfeited and unclaimed Shares do now remain to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, for the Uſe thereof: For Remedy whereof, and to obviate all Doubts and Difficulties which have ariſen, or may ariſe, concerning the ſaid forfeited and unclaimed Shares, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame,

Court of Admiralty to have no additional Juriſdiction by this Act.

II. Provided always, nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, ſo as to make it neceſſary to have any Capture on Shore condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, or to give any Court of Admiralty any greater or other Power or Juriſdiction than what ſuch Court would be intitled to in caſe this Act had not been made.

All Agents reſiding in Britain, appointed for Receipt and Diſtribution of Booty, &c. or of the Ranſom of Ships, Forts, &c. ſhall, before March 25, 1773, pay to the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich all Sums then remaining in their Hands, on account of the Shares of Officers, &c. who have deſerted;

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, Agent and Agents, (who, at the Time of paſſing this Act, ſhall be reſiding in Great Britain), nominated and appointed for the Receipt and Diſtribution of the Booty and Plunder found in the Fortreſs of Geriah, or of the Money ariſing by the Sale of any Ship, Veſſel, Goods, and Merchandiſe, taken from the Enemy during the late Wars with France and Spain, or of the Booty and Plunder found in any Town, Fort, Place, or Settlement, reduced and taken, during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, or of the Ranſom of any Ship, Town, Fort, Place, Settlement, or Iſland, or of any Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſes, reduced and taken as aforeſaid, or of any ſuch Donation as aforeſaid, or on any Bounty Bill or Bounty Bills, given or granted for the taking, burning, ſinking, or deſtroying, any of the Enemies Ships of War, or Privateers, during ſuch Wars as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, and all and every Perſon and Perſons acting as ſuch Agent or Agents, and reſiding in Great Britain as aforeſaid, their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, account for, and pay to the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, in the County of Kent, or to his ſufficient Deputy or Agent, for the Uſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, all and every Sum and Sums of Money, as ſhall be then remaining in their Hands, on account of ſuch Shares of the Money ariſing as aforeſaid, as would have belonged to ſuch Officers and Men of His Majeſty's Navy and Marines, who had forfeited the ſame, by deſerting from His Majeſty's Service, in caſe they had not ſo deſerted, and alſo ſuch Shares thereof as were forfeited by the ſeveral Naval Officers, Seamen, and Marines, intitled thereto, on Occaſion of their not claiming the ſame, within Three Years from the reſpective Times appointed for the Payment of the ſaid Shares, by the publick Notifications given of the Times of ſuch Payment, purſuant to the ſaid Acts of Parliament.

WHEREAS the Church-yard of the Pariſh of Watford, in the County of Hertford, is of very little Extent, and for a long Time paſt has been, and continues to be, too ſmall for the convenient and decent Interment of the Dead: And whereas the ſaid Pariſh of Watford is a large extenſive Pariſh, and the Inhabitants thereof are become very numerous, and by the great Increaſe of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh of Watford, the preſent Workhouſe belonging thereto is become inſufficient to contain them, whereby an additional Building to the preſent Workhouſe is now very much wanted, for the better Reception and Employment of the ſaid Poor: And whereas by an ancient Deed of Feoffment, bearing Date on or about the Twenty-firſt Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand five hundred and eighty, perfected by Livery of Seiſin, Francis then Earl of Bedford, Knight of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, and Brigette Counteſs of Bedford, his Wife, gave, granted, and confirmed, a certain Piece of Land, lying and being in Watford, in the County of Hertford, containing by Eſtimation Three Roods and Two Perches, be the ſame more or leſs, as it lay incloſed with Hedges and Ditches, in a certain Place there called The Parſonage Barn Yard, and lying between a Lane called New Street, of the South and Eaſt Parts, and the Parſonage Barn of the North and Weſt, and upon a certain Cloſe called New Barn Cloſe, on the South and Weſt, and upon the ſaid Lane called New Street, towards the North and Weſt, and all thoſe Eight Tenements, Houſes, or Meſſuages, and the Appurtenances, by the Appointment of the ſaid Brigette Counteſs of Bedford, erected upon Part of the ſaid Piece of Ground, with Eight Crofts adjoining to the ſaid Eight Meſſuages or Houſes, unto Arthur Lord Graye, Sir Henry Nevell Knight, Sir John Souche Knight, Anthony Tarrall Eſquire, Miles Sans Eſquire, John Busſhye Eſquire, Charles Huſey the elder, Eſquire, Charles Huſey the younger, Eſquire, and John Huſey Gentleman, their Heirs and Aſſigns, to the Uſe of them, their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever; to the Intent neverthleſs, that they, and their Heirs and Aſſigns, and all other Perſons who ſhould thereafter be enfeoffed of and in the Premiſes, or any Part thereof, ſhould, (amongſt other Things), from Time to Time, for ever thereafter, permit ſuch Eight poore

Almes-women, as, by a Writing thereto annext, ſhould be appointed or declared to inhabit or dwell in the ſaid Eight Meſſuages or Tenements, during the Life of each poore Woman: And to the further Intent and Purpoſe, that when the ſaid Feoffees, or any other Perſons who ſhould thereafter be enfeoffed in the Premiſes, or any Part or Parcel thereof, ſhould be reduced to Two or One, that the Survivors or Surviver ſhould enfeoff Six, Five, or Four other Perſons, and their Heirs, to the Uſe of them and their Heirs; upon Truſt nevertheleſs, and to the Intent that they who ſhould thereafter be enfeoffed in the Premiſes, their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhould permit and act in all Things as therein before is mentioned: And whereas by the ſaid Writings ſo annexed to the ſaid Deed of Feoffment, and bearing equal Date therewith, the ſaid Earl and Counteſs of Bedford did appoynte, noteſie, and declare, that the ſaid Eight poore Women, and every of them, during the Lyffe of the ſaid Counteſſe, ſhould be thereunto appointed, elected, and choſen by the ſaid Counteſſe onlye; and that after her Death, the Nomination and Appointment of ſuch poore Women ſhould for ever apertayne to the Heirs of the Counteſſe, in Manner therein expreſſed: And whereas, by Indentures of Leaſe and Releaſe, bearing Date reſpectively the Fourth and Fifth Days of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, the Releaſe being Tripartite, and made, or mentioned to be made, between the Right Honourable Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, Viſcount Malden, and Baron Capel of Hadham, only Son and Heir of the Right Honourable William late Earl of Eſſex, deceaſed, by the Right Honourable Elizabeth Counteſs of Eſſex, his Wife, (then Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex) of the Firſt Part; the Right Honourable the Lady Frances Hanbury Williams, Widow, and the Right Honourable the Lady Mary Forbes, the Wife of the Honourable John Forbes, then One of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, of the Second Part; and the moſt Noble John Duke of Bedford, the Right Honourable Edward Earl of Oxford and Mortimer, and the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex, of the Third Part; in Conſideration of a Marriage had and ſolemnized between the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex and Frances late Counteſs of Eſſex, his Wife; and in purſuance of certain Articles of Agreement, bearing Date on or about the Thirty-firſt Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-four, (and therein recited), ſo far as the Uſes and Truſts thereof were then ſubſiſting, and could be carried into Execution, and for other the Conſiderations therein mentioned, the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex did grant and convey all that Rectory or Parſonage of Watford, and the Advowſon of the Vicarage of the Church of Watford, in the ſaid County of Hertford, together with all and ſingular other the Manors, Lands, Rectories, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments whatſoever, of him the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, in the ſaid County of Hertford, and in the County of Middleſex, (except a certain Meſſuage or Tenement and Farm, and all and ſingular the Lands and Appurtenances thereto belonging, at Leaveſden, in the Pariſh of Watford aforeſaid, formerly a Wood, and known by the Name of Leaveſden Wood), and alſo except a certain other Meſſuage, Tenement, or Farm, with all and ſingular the Lands and Appurtenances thereto belonging, ſituate at or near Barnet, in the ſaid County of Hertford, (therein particularly mentioned and deſcribed), unto the ſaid Lady Frances Hanbury Williams, and Lady Mary Forbes, and their Heirs, to the Uſes therein after limited; Remainder to the Uſe of the ſaid John Duke of Bedford, Edward Earl of Oxford and Mortimer, and Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, for the Term of One thouſand Years, without Impeachment of Waſte; in Truſt by Sale or Mortgage of the Premiſes ſo limited to them, for the ſaid Term of One thouſand Years, or of a competent Part thereof, for all or any Part of the ſaid Term, or by the Rents and Profits thereof, or by Sale of Timber thereupon growing, to raiſe the Sum therein mentioned, for the Portion of Lady Elizabeth Capel, the Daughter of the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, by the ſaid Frances late Counteſs of Eſſex his Wife, to be paid to her at ſuch Age or Time, in ſuch Manner, and with ſuch Maintenance, as therein is mentioned; with a Declaration, that after the Performance of the ſaid Truſts therein mentioned, the ſaid Term of One thouſand Years ſhould ceaſe, determine, and be abſolutely void; and after the End or other ſooner Determination of the ſaid Term of One thouſand Years, to the Uſe of the Right Honourable George Lord Viſcount Malden, the only Son of the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, by the ſaid Lady Frances, his late Wife, and the Heirs Male of his Body; Remainder to the right Heirs of the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, for ever: And whereas the ſaid Rectory and Parſonage of Watford, and the Advowſon of the Vicarage of the Church of Watford, together with divers Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, is alſo charged with and now remains ſubject and liable to the Payment of a large Annuity or yearly Rent Charge to the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex, (Mother of the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex), for her Life: And whereas the moſt convenient and contiguous Pieces of Ground for the Enlargement of the Cœmetery or Church-yard of the Pariſh of Watford, and for making a Road in the Place and Stead of the preſent Road, which lieth between and ſeparateth the preſent Cœmetery or Church-yard from the Court or Alms-yard belonging to the ſaid Alms-houſes, conſiſt of the whole of the ſaid Alms-yard or Court-yard belonging to the ſaid Alms-houſes, and of a ſmall Part of a Garden belonging to One of the ſaid Alms-houſes, and alſo of a Nook, or ſmall Parcel of Land, being Part of a certain Cloſe or Yard, called Almonwick Yard, and which ſaid laſt-mentioned Cloſe or Yard is Part or Parcel of the Rectory or Parſonage of Watford, in the ſaid County of Hertford; which ſaid Pieces of Ground, together with the preſent Road, ſo lying contiguous to and being convenient for the Enlargement of the ſaid Church-yard, and for making ſuch new Road, as aforeſaid, contain in the Whole about Half an Acre, little more or leſs: And whereas the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex hath, from Time to Time, as the Heir and Deſcendent of the ſaid Brigette Counteſs of Bedford, appointed poor Women to inhabit and dwell in the ſaid Alms-houſes, but no Feoffment appears to have been made by the ſurviving Truſtees or Truſtee named in the ſaid Deed of Feoffment, bearing Date the ſaid Twenty-firſt Day of February, One thouſand five hundred and eighty, of the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands, and Premiſes, thereby ſettled and aſſured to ſuch charitable Uſes as are herein-before mentioned, and at this very remote Period of Time it is apprehended that it would be very difficult, if not impracticable, to diſcover which of them the ſaid Arthur Lord Graye, Sir Henry Nevell, Sir John Souche, Anthony Tarrall, Miles Sans, John Buſhye, Charles Huſey ſenior, Charles Huſey junior, Eſquires; and John Huſey Gentleman, was the Survivor or longeſt Liver, and who is now the Heir of ſuch Survivor; and, admitting that ſuch Heir could be found, yet, by reaſon of the charitable Uſes and Truſts limited and declared of and concerning the ſaid Alms-yard or Court-yard, and other the Premiſes compriſed in the ſaid ancient Deed of Feoffment, no Part thereof could be appropriated, or effectually conveyed or aſſured for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, without the Aid of an Act of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex, the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, and the ſaid George Lord Viſcount Malden, and Lady Elizabeth Capel, the only Son and Daughter of ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex by the ſaid Frances late Counteſs of Eſſex, his Wife, deceaſed, are the only Perſons now in being who have any Eſtate, or are intereſted in the Manors, Lands, Rectories, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the ſaid County of Hertford, compriſed in and entailed by the ſaid Deed of Releaſe or Settlement of the ſaid Fifth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty: And the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex, on the Behalf of himſelf, and of the ſaid George Lord Viſcount Malden, his Son, and the ſaid Lady Elizabeth Capel, his Daughter, who are both Infants under the Age of Twenty-one Years; and the ſaid Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Eſſex, and alſo Anne Bowden, Mary Prieſt, Elizabeth Hone, Suſanna Moſſendew, Elizabeth Pitkin, Anne Bone, Ruth Hodſdon, and Martha Lemon, the Eight poor Perſons now inhabiting and reſiding in the ſaid Alms-houſes, ſo ſettled in and by the ſaid Deed of Feoffment of the Twenty-firſt of February, One thouſand five hundred and eighty, as aforeſaid, are willing and deſirous that the ſaid Cœmetery or Church-yard of Watford aforeſaid ſhall and may be enlarged and made convenient for the Burial of the Dead, by the Addition of the ſaid ſeveral ſmall Pieces or Parcels of Land before mentioned, lying contiguous thereto, or ſo much thereof reſpectively as ſhall be neceſſary; but by reaſon of the ſtrict Uſes, Truſts, and Limitations, created by the ſaid Deeds of Feoffment and Settlement reſpectively, the ſame cannot be effectuated, nor can the ſaid Cœmetery or Church-yard be enlarged, or made convenient, or the ſaid preſent Road altered or taken away, without the Aid and Authority of an Act of Parliament; may it therefore pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of London, and the Vicar and Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh of Watford for the Time being, and the ſaid Ann Holles Earl of Eſſex; CAP. XXIX.

n Act to explain and amend an Act, paſſed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking down and removing certain Light-houſes now ſtanding near the Spurn Point, at the Mouth of the Humber; and for erecting other fit and convenient Light-houſes inſtead thereof.

Preamble.
Act 6 Geo. III.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for taking down and removing certain Light-uſes now ſtanding near the Spurn Point, at the Mouth of the Humber; and for erecting her fit and convenient Light-houſes inſtead thereof; after reciting, amongſt other Things, hat it was abſolutely neceſſary for the Safety of the Northern Navigation, that Two ew Light-houſes ſhould be erected in a proper Place nearer to the Spurn Point than the lace where the then Light-houſes ſtood; and that John Angell, then of Stockwell, in the ounty of Surrey, Eſquire, as Owner of Three-fourth Parts of the ſaid Light-houſes, evenues, Duties, and Profits, having had frequent Applications made to him, or his gents, by the Corporations of the Trinity Houſes of Deptford Strond and Kingſton upon Hull, nd alſo by Leonard Thompſon, therein named, and all poſſible Means having been uſed to revail on him to change the Situation thereof, in ſuch a Manner as that they might anſwer e good Ends and Purpoſes for which they were originally deſigned, had, from Time to ime, wholly neglected or refuſed ſo to do, or to contribute his Proportion of the Exence of taking down and removing the ſaid then Light-houſes, and of erecting and build- g others in the Stead thereof, as aforeſaid, whereby, and by Petitions to His Majeſty for at Purpoſe, and by References thereon, the ſaid Corporations, and alſo the ſaid Leonard hompſon, had been put to conſiderable Charges and Expences; and alſo reciting, That e ſaid Leonard Thompſon was ready and willing to take down and remove the ſaid then ight-houſes, and to erect and build others inſtead thereof, in ſuch Place or Places near to e preſent Point of the Spurn, and in ſuch Manner and Form, as ſhould be thought moſt roper and convenient by the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, and nder their Inſpection and Direction, upon his being enabled to borrow and raiſe Money r that Purpoſe, and for repaying to the ſaid Corporations of the Trinity Houſes of Dept-rd Strond and Hull, and him the ſaid Leonard Thompſon reſpectively, their ſaid reſpective harges and Expences incurred concerning the ſaid Light-houſes, and alſo for defraying e Charges of ſoliciting and obtaining that Act, and ſo that the Three-fourth Parts of the d Revenues, Duties, and Profits, belonging to the ſaid John Angell, might be a re-emable Intereſt in him, or the Perſon or Perſons intitled thereto, on his of their paying e whole Amount of the ſaid Expences of the ſaid Corporations of Deptford Strond and ull, and of him the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, and the intereſt thereof, and Three-fourth

Parts of the Expences of obtaining that Act, and removing and rebuilding the ſaid Light-houſes, and the Intereſt of ſuch Three-fourth Parts, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhould advance and lend the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; but by reaſon of the Eſtate and Intereſt which the ſaid John Angell had in the ſaid Three-fourth Parts of the ſaid Lands, Light-houſes, Revenues, Duties, and Profits, and by reaſon that the ſaid Leonard Thompſon was only Tenant for Life, with ſuch Remainders over as in the ſaid Act is mentioned, in the ſaid Fourth Part of the ſaid Premiſes, the Purpoſes aforeſaid could not be effected without Aid and Authority of Parliament: Therefore, for promoting a Work ſo conducive to the Safety of His Majeſty's Subjects, and to remedy ſo great a detriment to Trade and Navigation, it was enacted, That it ſhould be lawful for the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, and other the Perſon and Perſons who ſhould for the Time being be intitled to his Fourth Part of the Duties and Profits by the ſaid Act granted or continued, by or under the therein recited Will of Edward Thompſon, and he and they were thereby authoriſed and required, with as much Speed as conveniently might be, after the Firſt Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſix, to erect and build, or cauſe to be erected and built, Two new and ſufficient Light-houſes, with ſuitable Offices and Conveniencies, at or near the ſaid Spurn Point, and according to ſuch Plan and Eſtimate as the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond ſhould, by Writing under their Common Seal, ſpecify, appoint, and approve of, and for that Purpoſe to take down the then preſent Light-houſes, and to make uſe of all or any Part of the Materials thereof, or otherwiſe to ſell and diſpoſe of the ſame, and to apply the Money ariſing thereby towards building ſuch new Light-houſes; and, in the mean Time, and until ſuch new Light-houſes ſhall be completed, to erect and continue Two temporary Light-houſes as near as might be to the reſpective Places where the ſaid new Light-houſes ſhould, as aforeſaid, be appointed to be built, and alſo to keep ſufficient Lights and Fires continually burning in the Night Seaſon, ſo as to anſwer the Purpoſes intended by the ſaid Act, for the Benefit of Navigation, and from Time to Time to enlarge, contract, alter, or remove the ſaid new Light-houſes, or either of them, as Occaſion might require, with the Conſent and by the Direction of the ſame Corporation, to be ſignified as aforeſaid; and, for any of the Purpoſes aforeſaid, to enter upon and uſe ſuch Part or Parts of the Land at or near the Spurn Point, as the Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond ſhould, from Time to Time, by Writing, under their Common Seal, appoint: And to the End that the Completion of ſo neceſſary a Work might not be obſtructed by the ſaid John Angell's perſiſting in his Refuſal to co-operate with the ſaid Leonard Thompſon therein, and for enabling the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, or other Perſon or Perſons who ſhould come into Poſſeſſion of his Share or Intereſt in the ſaid Premiſes, to diſcharge to the Corporations of the Trinity Houſes of Deptford and Hull, and to him the ſaid Leonard Thompſon reſpectively, the Expences which he and they had been put to on the Occaſions aforeſaid, and to diſcharge the Expences of obtaining the ſaid recited Act, (ſuch Expences to be aſcertained as therein is directed), and to raiſe Money ſufficient for taking down the then preſent Light-houſes, and erecting and building the ſaid temporary Lights and new Light-houſes, it was by the ſaid Act further enacted, That it ſhould be lawful for the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, or other Perſon or Perſons in Poſſeſſion of his ſaid Fourth Part, to borrow and raiſe any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of the aforeſaid Expences and Eſtimate aſcertained in Manner as aforeſaid; and for ſecuring the Repayment thereof, to mortgage, leaſe, or demiſe, the Ground which ſhould be appointed in Manner aforeſaid, together with the Light-houſes which ſhould be erected thereon, with their Appurtenances, and the Duties and Profits thereby granted, for any Number of Years, not exceeding Five hundred Years, under and ſubject to ſuch Proviſoes, Covenants, and Conditions, as well for Redemption as other Purpoſes, as in the ſaid Act are particularly mentioned and expreſſed: And it was by the ſaid Act further enacted, That if the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, or other Perſon or Perſons who ſhould come into Poſſeſſion of his Share and Intereſt in the ſaid Premiſes, ſhould neglect or refuſe to perform the Works above mentioned within Two Years after receiving ſuch Plan and Eſtimate as aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond ſhould cauſe the ſame to be compleated; and from and after the Erections of ſuch new Light-houſes, and placing Lights therein, by the ſaid Corporation, the ſaid Duties thereby granted or continued, with the Powers and Authorities for demanding, collecting, and receiving the ſame, ſhould immediately veſt in the ſaid Corporation, in Manner and for the Time therein mentioned: And whereas, in purſuance of the ſaid Act, the ſaid Leonard Thompſon hath proceeded to take down the ſaid old Light-houſes, and at his own Expence hath erected Two temporary Lights; but the ſaid Leonard Thompſon not being able to borrow a Sum of Money ſufficient to enable him to erect and build Two new Light-houſes at the ſaid Spurn Point, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned, was conſtrained to apply to the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, to take upon them, according to the Directions of the ſaid recited Act, the erecting and building ſuch Two new Light-houſes, with ſuitable Offices and Conveniencies, at or near the ſaid Spurn Point, under their Care and Management, which the ſaid Corporation, after furniſhing a proper Plan and Eſtimate for that Purpoſe to the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, did accordingly undertake and agree to do, and, in purſuance thereof, have contracted and agreed with able and experienced Surveyors and Workmen for the erecting and building ſuch Two new Light-houſes, according to the ſaid Plan and Eſtimate approved of under their Common Seal, as by the ſaid Act is directed; and the ſaid Corporation are now proceeding, with all due Diligence, to conſtruct and finiſh the ſaid Two new Light-houſes, and for that Purpoſe have already expended and laid out ſeveral large Sums of Money, and will be under a Neceſſity of expending a ſtill further conſiderable Sum before the ſaid Light-houſes and Works can be compleated: And whereas the Duties granted or continued by the ſaid former Act are not to become veſted in the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, under the Powers contained in the ſaid recited Act, until the ſaid Two new Light-houſes ſhall be erected, and Lights placed thereon, by the ſaid Corporation: And whereas the ſaid Corporation, and the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Hull, and alſo the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, have expended very conſiderable Sums of Money on the Occaſions in the ſaid Act mentioned, as alſo in the obtaining the aforeſaid Act of Parliament, (all which Expences have been aſcertained by the Commiſſioners therein named, according to the Directions and Authority of the ſaid Act), and ſince the paſſing thereof, in pulling down the ſaid old Light-houſes, and erecting the aforeſaid temporary Light-houſes, and in carrying on the preſent Works towards building and compleating the ſaid Two new Light-houſes, which Sums they have at preſent no Means of being reimburſed; and the Agents of the ſaid John Angell have alſo greatly obſtructed the Workmen employed by the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, in erecting the ſaid new Light-houſes: And whereas it is highly neceſſary to the Navigation of this Kingdom, that the ſaid new Light-houſes ſhould be erected and compleated as ſoon as may be; and it is alſo very fit and reaſonable that the ſaid Corporations of the Trinity Houſes of Deptford Strond and of Hull, and alſo the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, ſhould be ſeverally paid their aforeſaid Charges and Expences; may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, the ſaid Two temporary Light-houſes, erected as aforeſaid, and the Upholding, Maintenance, Management, and Care thereof, until the ſaid new Light-houſes ſhall be erected and compleated, and alſo all and every the Duties granted in or by all or any the Letters Patent in the ſaid recited Act mentioned or referred to, or by the ſaid Act continued, confirmed, or granted, together with the Powers and Authorities by the ſaid Act, or Letters Patent, given or granted, for demanding, collecting, and recovering the ſame, ſhall immediately veſt in the ſaid Corporation of the Trinity Houſe of Deptford Strond, and their Succeſſors, who may, from Time to Time, appoint proper Light-keepers, and other Officers and Servants, for the Care and Management of the ſaid temporary and new Light-houſes, and alſo proper Perſons to receive the ſame Duties; and the ſaid Corporation ſhall and may, and is hereby required and impowered, by and out of the Three fourth Parts of the ſaid Duties belonging to the ſaid John Angell, in the Firſt Place, to diſcharge and reimburſe to the ſaid Corporations of the Trinity Houſes of Deptford Strond and Hull, and to him the ſaid Leonard Thompſon, all the Expences which they have reſpectively been put to on the Occaſions in the ſaid Act mentioned, and which are, by the ſaid recited Act, directed to be wholly borne and paid by the ſaid John Angell, together with Intereſt for the ſame; and alſo by and out of the Whole of the ſaid Duties, to diſcharge and reimburſe to the ſaid Corporations and Leonard Thompſon all the Expences which they have reſpectively been put to in obtaining the ſaid recited Act of Parliament, as the ſame ſeveral Expences have been aſcertained, ſettled, and allowed by the Commiſſioners therein named, as herein-before mentioned; CAP. XLIII.

An Act for veſting Ely Houſe, in Holbourn, in His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and for applying the Purchaſe-money, with another Sum therein mentioned, in the purchaſing of a Freehold Piece of Ground in Dover Street, and in the building and fitting up another Houſe thereon, for the future Reſidence of the Biſhops of Ely, and the Surplus to the Benefit of the See; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend Edmund Lord Biſhop of Ely is ſeiſed, in Right of his See, of a Capital Manſion-houſe, called Ely Houſe, ſituate in Holbourn, in the County of Middleſex, and the Scite thereof: And whereas ſince the Death of the Right Reverend Matthias, late Lord Biſhop of Ely, his Lordſhip's immediate Predeceſſor, an Account hath been adjuſted between the Repreſentatives of the ſaid Matthias and the ſaid Edmund, now Lord Biſhop of Ely, of the Dilapidations incurred on the ſaid Manſion-houſe; and the ſame having been eſtimated at Three thouſand Pounds, that Sum hath been ſecured to the ſaid Edmund, now Lord Biſhop of Ely, by Bond, bearing Date the Eighteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, from Charles Wager Purvis, Eſquire, ſince deceaſed, payable as therein mentioned: And whereas, upon a proper Survey lately made of the ſaid Houſe, and Offices thereto belonging, it appears that the ſame are, from Length of Time, and other Cauſes, become ſo decayed, that it hath been adviſed, by experienced Workmen, to rebuild rather than attempt the Repair thereof: And whereas thereupon, and as no ſufficient Fund offered for rebuilding, an Agreement hath been made, and reduced into Writing, between the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury and the ſaid Edmund now Lord Biſhop of Ely, bearing Date the Twenty-ſeventh Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred dred and ſeventy-two, whereby, after reciting, (amongſt other Things), that it had been repreſented to their Lordſhips, that the Piece of Ground whereon the ſaid Houſe ſtood might be rendered of conſiderable Advantage to the Publick, if the ſame could be procured, in order thereon to erect publick Offices; and that the ſaid Edmund Lord Biſhop of Ely, being ſeiſed and poſſeſſed, in Right of his See, of the ſaid Ground and Houſe thereon, was ready and willing, ſo far as in him lay, to diſpoſe of the ſame for the Benefit of the Publick, upon a full and adequate Compenſation being made to him and his Succeſſors, and the ſaid See of Ely, in lieu thereof; and that their Lordſhips were deſirous the ſame might be purchaſed for the Service of the Publick, and that the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, and his Succeſſors, and the ſaid See of Ely, might, out of the Publick Money, receive a reaſonable Conſideration for the ſame: And further reciting, that, upon a Treaty between their Lordſhips and the ſaid Edmund, now Lord Biſhop of Ely, and upon proper Surveys taken, and Calculations made thereon, it had appeared and been agreed on, that a clear Sum of Six thouſand five hundred Pounds, and a clear Annuity of Two hundred Pounds, for ever, would be a full Price and adequate Conſideration for ſuch Piece of Ground and Houſe thereon built; but that ſuch Treaty and Agreement could not be effectually eſtabliſhed and carried into Execution without the Authority of Parliament, it was witneſſed, and the ſaid Edmund Lord Biſhop of Ely agreed and undertook that he would, with all convenient Speed, ſo far as in his Power lay, at his own Expence, procure an Act of Parliament to be paſſed for the Purpoſe of carrying the ſaid Treaty into immediate Execution, and of giving the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, and his Succeſſors, proper Powers to convey ſuch Piece of Ground, and the Houſe and Buildings thereon erected, to ſuch Perſons, and for ſuch Uſes, as ſhould be directed by the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for that Purpoſe; in which Act of Parliament were to be contained proper Clauſes for ſecuring to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, or his Succeſſors, the ſaid Sum of Six thouſand five hundred Pounds, clear of all Deductions and Outgoings, to be paid on the Execution of the Purchaſe Deeds of the ſaid Premiſes, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act ſhould direct; and alſo for ſecuring the ſaid Annuity of Two hundred Pounds, the Produce of which ſhould be paid to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, and his Succeſſors, from Time to Time, as Part of the Revenues of the ſaid Biſhoprick, in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Directions, as by the ſaid Act of Parliament ſhould be provided; and alſo that in caſe the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely ſhould chooſe to have a further Sum of Money advanced in lieu of the ſaid Annuity, or any Part thereof, that then there ſhould be paid to him, or other proper Perſons to be named in the ſaid Act, a Sum of Money in lieu of the ſaid Annuity, or of Part thereof, at the Election of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, after the Rate of Thirty Years Purchaſe: And whereas ſince the ſaid Agreement a certain Freehold Piece of Ground hath been offered to the ſaid Edmund Lord Biſhop of Ely, late belonging to the Right Honourable William Lord Viſcount Chetwynd, in the Kingdom of Ireland, deceaſed, ſituate in Dover Street, in the Pariſhes of Saint James and Saint Martin in the Fields, or One of them, in the County of Middleſex, as a proper and commodious Spot whereon to erect a ſuitable Manſion-houſe for the future Reſidence of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely, and his Succeſſors, the Biſhops of Ely, in the Room of the ſaid ancient Manſion-houſe in Holbourn; and an Agreement hath been entered into between the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Ely and Lucy Chetwynd and Eſther Chetwynd, the preſent Owners of the ſaid Piece of Ground, and the ancient Houſe and Buildings thereon erected, in Dover Street aforeſaid, for the Purchaſe of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Piece of Ground, and the Houſe and Buildings thereon, at the Price or Sum of Five thouſand ſix hundred Pounds, (Part of the before-mentioned Sum of Six thouſand five hundred Pounds), ſubject to the yearly Sum of Eighteen Pounds, for ever, payable out of Part of the Premiſes, to the Right Honourable the Lord Berkeley of Stratton, his Heirs and Aſſigns, (which laſt-mentioned Purchaſe, nevertheleſs, is to take Effect only in caſe the ſaid prior Agreement with the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſhall be eſtabliſhed and effectuated by Parliament); and if ſuch Purchaſe ſhall take Place, it hath been propoſed to pull down the old Houſe and Buildings now ſtanding on the ſaid Piece of Ground in Dover Street, and inſtead thereof to erect ſuch Manſion-houſe as aforeſaid, and to apply the ſaid Sum of Three thouſand Pounds, to be received by the ſaid Edmund, now Lord Biſhop of Ely, for Dilapidations, and the Whole, or a ſufficient Part of the Conſideration to be paid by the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, (agreeably to the Latitude given by the aforeſaid Contract), for the Purpoſe of building and fitting up the ſame for Habitation, and the Surplus (if any ſhall remain) for the Benefit of the See, in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Reſtrictions, as to the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall appear reaſonable: And whereas the Rents reſerved in and by ſeveral of the Leaſes granted by the Biſhops of Ely, in Right of the ſaid See, are made in the ſaid Manſion-houſe in Holbourn, and it hath been uſual for the Biſhop of Ely for the Time being to hear and determine Appeals from ſeveral Colleges in the Univerſity of Cambridge, as Viſitor thereof, at his ſaid Houſe in Holbourn, and to cite all Parties concerned in ſuch Appeals to appear at the ſaid Houſe; but it will be proper, upon the Alienation of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Houſe, to transfer the Payment of ſuch reſerved Rents, and Exerciſe of ſuch Appellate Juriſdiction, to ſuch new Manſion-houſe, to be erected for the future Reſidence of the Biſhops of the ſaid See, when the ſame ſhall be ſo erected, and, in the mean Time, to provide ſome other proper Place or Reſort for the ſaid ſeveral Purpoſes: And whereas the effectuating and accompliſhing the ſaid Agreement with the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury will be of great Advantage to the Publick, and the ſeveral Purpoſes propoſed to be anſwered in conſequence thereof will be no leſs beneficial to the See of Ely; yet foraſmuch as the ſame cannot be carried into Execution without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; therefore may it pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That (from and immediately after the Payment into the Bank of England by His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, in the Names of the ſaid Edmund Lord Biſhop of Ely, and of Owen Saluſbury Brereton of Shotwich Park, in the County Palatine of Cheſter, Eſquire, and Thomas Hunt of Mollington, in the ſaid County, Eſquire, Truſtees hereby appointed in that Behalf, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, of the full Sum of Six thouſand five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, free and clear of all Taxes, Impoſitions, Fees, Rewards, and other Deductions, on or before the Eleventh Day of June, which will be in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred

V. And, in order that the Inconveniencies ariſing from the Negligence of Chaiſe Drivers, Carters, Draymen, Sledgemen, Carmen, and Waggoners, and Drivers of any other Carriage whatſoever, may be the more eaſily prevented; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any Chaiſe Driver, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall be found ſitting in his Chaiſe, without another Perſon on One of the Horſes driving the ſame; or if any Carter, Drayman, Carman, Sledgeman, or Waggoner, or the Driver of any other Carriage whatſoever, (Coaches, Chaiſes, Phaetons, Curricles, Chairs, and ſuch other Carriages, which are uſually driven by a Perſon ſitting within or upon the Carriage, and ſuch Carriages as are reſpectively drawn by One Horſe only, or by Two Horſes abreaſt, and are conducted by ſome Perſon holding the Reins of ſuch

After Sept. 1, 1772, every Chaiſe Driver found ſitting in his Chaiſe, without another Perſon on One of the Horſes; or any Carter, &c. riding on his Carriage, without a proper Perſon on Foot to guide it; within Six Miles of Edinburgh, Four of Glaſgow, or Two of any other City, &c.; or if any Driver ſhall negligently occaſion any Hurt or Damage, &c. or ſhall not diſmount when required, ſhall forfeit 10*s.* if not the Owners; and if the Owner, 20*s.* for each Offence.

Horſe or Horſes excepted), ſhall ride upon any ſuch Carriage, (not having ſome other Perſon on Foot or on Horſeback to guide the ſame), on any Street of any City or Town, or on any Highway within Six Miles of the City of Edinburgh, or Four Miles of the City of Glaſgow, or Two Miles of any other City, Royal Burgh, Market Town, or Burgh of Regality, or Barony; or if the Driver of any Carriage whatſoever on any Part of any Street or Highway ſhall, by Negligence, or wilful Miſbehaviour, cauſe any Hurt or Damage to any Perſon or Carriage paſſing or being upon ſuch Street or Highway, or ſhall, by Negligence, or wilful Miſbehaviour, prevent, hinder, or interrupt the free Paſſage of any other Carriage, or of His Majeſty's Subjects, on the ſaid Highways; or if the Driver of any Cart, Car, Dray, or Waggon, on any Highway whatſoever, when riding on his Carriage, ſhall not diſmount (ſo as the better to guide his Horſe or Horſes and Carriage) when required by any Perſon apprehending Danger from ſuch Carriage; every ſuch Driver, offending in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Shillings Sterling, in caſe ſuch Driver ſhall not be the Owner of ſuch Carriage; and in caſe the Offender be Owner of ſuch Carriage, then any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling.

No Drivers of Carts, &c. to drive alongſide of other Carriages, ſo as to obſtruct the free Paſſage, but ſhall follow One after another, and have Bridles, &c. upon every Horſe, on Penalty of 20*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.*

VI. And whereas ſeveral Inconveniencies do ariſe, and many Accidents have happened, by Carts, Cars, and other Carriages above mentioned, being drawn abreaſt or alongſide One another, ſo as the Paſſage of the Streets and Highways in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland is entirely obſtructed, and alſo by the Drivers of ſuch Carriages not having Bridles or Halters upon their Horſes; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Driver or Drivers of Carts, Cars, or other Carriages, above mentioned, ſhall drive their Carriage or Carriages abreaſt or alongſide of any other Carriage or Carriages, ſo as wilfully to obſtruct the free Paſſage of ſuch Streets and Highways reſpectively, but ſhall follow One after another upon the ſame, and ſhall have Bridles or Halters upon every Horſe in any of the above Carriages; which Bridles or Halters upon the foremoſt Horſe ſhall (in all Carriages not drawn by more than Two Horſes) be tied with a Rope, or ſome other Thing of ſufficient Strength, to the Halter or Bridle of the Horſe behind; and which Rope or Bridle the Driver of every ſuch Carriage ſhall have in his or her Hand; and every Perſon offending in the Premiſes ſhall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling, nor leſs than Five Shillings Sterling, for each Offence.

No Drivers to drive their Horſes, &c. abreaſt, ſo as to obſtruct the free Paſſage, but ſhall drive them in a Line, with a Bridle affixed to the Head of each Horſe, &c.; nor ſhall the Drivers of Carts, &c. leave ſuch upon any Street, &c. unyoked, on Penalty of 20*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.*

VII. And whereas the free Paſſage of His Majeſty's Subjects is often obſtructed, and their Perſons put in Danger, from the preſent irregular and diſorderly Method of driving Horſes with or without Loads, and by leaving Carts, Waggons, Sledges, Coaches, Chaiſes, and other Carriages, after the Horſes have been unyoked and taken from the ſame; and alſo Stone, Lime, Timber, Rubbiſh, and the Bodies of dead Horſes, and other Animals, and other Articles which do obſtruct ſuch free Paſſage as aforeſaid, upon the Streets and Highways, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Drivers of Horſes or other Beaſts of Burthen, with or without Loads, ſhall drive their Horſes or other Beaſts of Burthen abreaſt, ſo as wilfully to obſtruct the free Paſſage of His Majeſty's Subjects, or to put their Perſons in Danger, but ſhall, as much as may be, drive them in a Line One after another, in a regular Manner, having a Bridle or Halter affixed to the Head of each Horſe or Beaſt of Burthen; and that the Driver or Owner of any Cart, Waggon, Sledge, Coach, Chaiſe, or other Carriage, ſhall not be permitted to leave the ſame upon any Street or Highway within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, after the Horſe or Horſes have been unyoked and taken from ſuch Cart, Waggon, Sledge, or other Carriage reſpectively, except only with reſpect to ſuch Carriage during ſuch reaſonable Time as the ſame ſhall be loading or unloading; nor ſhall it be allowable to any Perſon or Perſons to leave Stones, Lime, Timber, Rubbiſh, the Bodies of dead Horſes, or of other Animals, or other Nuiſances, upon the Streets and Highways aforeſaid, ſo as to obſtruct the free Paſſage of the ſame; and that every Perſon offending in the Premiſes ſhall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling, and not leſs than Five Shillings Sterling, for each Offence.

Drivers of loaded Horſes, &c. ſhall, on meeting other Horſes, drive to the left Hand.

VIII. And whereas many Diſputes frequently happen between the Drivers of loaded Horſes and other Beaſts of Burthen, and the Drivers of Carts, and ſuch other Carriages, and between the Drivers of Coaches, Chariots, Chaiſes, and ſuch like Carriages, travelling upon any Street or Highway within the Limits aforeſaid, about giving the Way to, or making Way for one another; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Driver of every ſuch loaded Horſe, Horſes, or other Beaſts of Burthen, and the Driver of every Cart, Car, or ſuch like Carriage, and every Coach, Chariot, Chaiſe, and ſuch like Carriage, ſhall be obliged, upon meeting another loaded Horſe, or other Beaſt of Burthen, or another Carriage, of whatever Kind, to make Way, by holding or driving to his own Left Hand, or what is commonly called Holding to the near Side, and that without Diſtinction, whether the Carriages ſo meeting one another are loaded or unloaded; and that every Perſon offending in the Premiſes ſhall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling, and not leſs than Five Shillings Sterling, for every ſuch Offence.

Penalty not exceeding 20*s.* nor leſs than 5*s.*

Proſecutions againſt Offenders to be brought before the Sheriff-depute, or Subſtitute, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Proſecutions againſt Offenders, in reſpect of the ſeveral Acts and Neglects which are made puniſhable by this Act, may be brought ſummarily before the Sheriff-depute or Subſtitute, or any Juſtice of the Peace of the County within which the Offence ſhall be committed, or before any of the Magiſtrates of Cities or Boroughs where the Offences have been committed within their Juriſdiction, or before any other Judge competent; and that Judgement ſhall proceed and be given againſt the Offender or Offenders, either upon his or their own Confeſſion, or upon the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witneſſes.

Offenders to be apprehended for Offences committed by

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, charged with being guilty of any of the Offences made puniſhable by this Act, ſhall, upon the Seizure of, or an Attempt to ſeize, under the Authority of this Act, his or their Perſons or Property, or the Property of others under their Care, as aforeſaid, reſiſt, abuſe, or maltreat, any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; or if any Perſon ſhall aid or aſſiſt him, her, or them, in ſo doing, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall reſpectively forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings Sterling for every ſuch laſt-mentioned Offence; the Offence to be proved, and Judgement to proceed thereupon, in the ſame Way and Manner as herein-before provided for in the Caſe of the other before-mentioned Offences againſt this Act.

Offenders puniſhable by the Act for maltreating any Perſon whatſoever, to forfeit 20 s. for every Offence.

Offenders refuſing to diſcover their Names to the Judge, to be committed.

XIII. And be it likewiſe enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Fines and Forfeitures ariſing from the Offences made puniſhable by this Act ſhall be applied, the One Half to the Informer or Proſecutor, and the other Half to the Collector of the Land Tax of the County within which the Offence ſhall have been committed, and by him to be accounted for as Part of the Funds eſtabliſhed by Law for the Detection and Puniſhment of Vagrants within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

All Dealers in Tea ſhall mark each Caniſter, &c with the Words Black or Green, according to the Contents of ſuch Caniſter, &c.

Black Tea, and Green Tea, how to be diſtinguiſhed.

II. And, for avoiding all Doubts and Controverſies concerning the Two Kinds of Teas in this Act mentioned, and diſtinguiſhed by the Names of Black Tea and Green Tea, it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That by the Term or Name Black Tea, is meant all ſuch Teas as are uſually called or known by the Name of Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea; and that by the Term or Name Green Tea, is meant all Teas not being ſuch Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, the Officer and Officers of Exciſe who ſhall, from Time to Time, ſurvey and take the Stock of Tea at the Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, and other Places made uſe of for keeping Tea by Dealers in and Sellers of Tea, ſhall keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account of the Black Tea and of the Green Tea which ſhall at any Time be in their or any of their Cuſtody; and if ſuch Officer of Exciſe ſhall find any Increaſe either of Green Tea or of Black Tea in the Cuſtody of any ſuch Dealer or Seller, over and above the Quantity of each reſpective Sort which ſuch Officer found in ſuch Dealer or Seller's Cuſtody at the Time of ſuch Officer's laſt preceding Survey upon ſuch Dealer or Seller, ſuch Increaſe ſhall be deemed and taken to be made by Tea for which no Duties were paid, and which had been privately brought in by ſuch Dealer or Seller without Permit or Certificate; and ſo much of the Green Tea or Black Tea reſpectively as ſhall be found ſo increaſed ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized and carried away by ſuch Officer of Exciſe who ſhall ſo find the ſame, unleſs the Owner thereof ſhall make it appear that the ſaid Increaſe was made by ſuch Green Tea or Black Tea reſpectively brought in with an authentick Permit or Certificate of the Payment of the Duties thereof.

Sellers of Tea in ſmall Quantities, under 6 lb. Weight, to keep diſtinct Accounts of what Quantity they retail of each Sort.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, all Dealers in and Sellers of Tea, who ſhall ſell or conſume the ſame in ſmall Quantities, under the Weight of Six Pounds, ſhall and are hereby obliged and directed to keep ſeparate and diſtinct Accounts of all the Black Tea, and of all the Green Tea, which they or any of them ſhall ſo reſpectively ſell or conſume in ſmall Quantities in each Day, and ſhall, every Night, enter into a Book, to be kept for that Purpoſe, an Account of the groſs Quantities of the Black Tea, and alſo of the Green Tea, which have been by him, her, or them, reſpectively ſo retailed or conſumed in that Day in ſmall Quantities under the ſaid Weight of Six Pounds; and the ſaid Dealers in and Sellers of Tea ſhall alſo keep One other Book, wherein they ſhall make ſeparate and diſtinct Entries of all the Black Tea, and all the Green Tea, above the Weight of Six Pounds, which they ſhall reſpectively ſell in each Day; which ſaid Books ſhall be provided, and the Entries ſo to be made in the ſaid Books ſhall be under the ſame Directions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted by the ſaid above-recited Act of the Tenth of His late Majeſty King George the Firſt.

Such Entries to be under the Directions provided by Act 10 Geo. I.

No Tea exceeding 6 lb. Weight to be removed out of the Kingdom without a Permit; expreſſing the Quantity and Quality of ſuch Tea, &c.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Tea, exceeding the Quantity of Six Pounds Weight, ſhall be removed or carried from any Part of this Kingdom, by Land or by Water, without a Permit or Certificate, ſigned by One or more of the Officers for the Inland Duties on Tea, ſignifying and certifying the Names and Places of Abode of the Buyer and Seller, and expreſſing the Quantity and Quality of the Tea; that is to ſay, If the Tea ſo to be removed or carried is Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then to expreſs in the Permit or Certificate, that the ſame is Black Tea; and if the Tea ſo to be removed and carried is neither Bohea, Congo, Souchong, or Pekoe Tea, then to expreſs in the Permit or Certificate, that the ſame upon Pain of Forfeiture of ſuch Tea.

No Tea to be ſold by Wholeſale or Retail, but out of the Warehouſes and Shops approved of by Act 10 Geo. I.

VI. And whereas by the ſaid recited Act it is enacted, That no Tea ſhould be ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, but when the ſame ſhould be in ſome Warehouſe or Place entered for keeping the ſame, upon Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Tea ſo ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, and Treble the Value thereof, together with the Package containing the ſame: And whereas the Penalty by the ſaid Act provided has, by Experience, been found ineffectual, and ill-diſpoſed Perſons have thereby been induced to carry Tea which hath been clandeſtinely imported into this Kingdom from Houſe to Houſe, in ſmall Parcels, in Diminution of the Revenue, and to the great Diſcouragement of the fair Dealer in Tea; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, if any Tea ſhall be ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale, either by Wholeſale or Retail, but when the ſame ſhall be in ſome or One of the Warehouſes, Storehouſes, Rooms, Shops, Cellars, Vaults, or other Places, entered and approved as by the ſaid Act is directed, the Perſon or Perſons ſo uttering, ſelling, or expoſing to Sale, ſuch Tea, in any other Place or Places than thoſe entered and approved as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of Ten Pounds, together with all the Tea which ſhall be ſo ſold, uttered, or expoſed to Sale.

Clauſe in Act 5 Geo. III.

VII. And whereas by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and further improving of the Revenues of Cuſtoms, Exciſe, Inland and Salt Duties, it was enacted, That Makers of Hard Soap ſhould provide Covers to their Coppers, Pans, and Utenſils, wherewith they ſhould boil or make Hard Soap; which Coppers, Pans, and Utenſils, and alſo the Pipe or Pipes that conveyed the Waſte or Salt Lees from ſuch Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, the Officers of Exciſe were to lock and ſeal down in Manner as in and by the ſaid Act was particularly required and directed; and by the ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Act it was enacted, That if by any Art, Device, or Contrivance whatſoever, any ſuch Maker of Hard Soap ſhould open any Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, or any Pipe or Pipes, after the ſame ſhould have been locked down and ſecured, and before the ſame had been unlocked and opened by the Officer of Exciſe, or ſhould wilfully break or damage any ſuch Lock, Seal, or Faſtning, that every ſuch Maker of Hard Soap ſo offending ſhould, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of Twenty Pounds: And whereas the ſaid Penalty of Twenty Pounds by the ſaid Act provided, hath, by Experience, been found ineffectual, and not ſufficient to prevent and reſtrain Makers of Hard Soap from opening their Coppers, Pans, Utenſils, and Pipes, in regard the Duties of One Boiling of Soap may, and often do, amount to much more than the Sum of Twenty Pounds, whereby ill-diſpoſed Perſons have been encouraged and induced to open their Coppers, Pans, Utenſils, and Pipes, to the great Diminution of the Revenue ariſing by the Duties laid upon Soap, and to the Prejudice of the fair Traders, who duly pay the full Duties for all Soap by them made: For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if at any Time after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, any Maker of Hard Soap ſhall, by any Art, Device, or Contrivance whatſoever, open, or cauſe to be opened, any Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, or any Pipe or Pipes, that convey the Waſte or Salt Lees from ſuch Copper, Pan, or Utenſil, after the ſame ſhall have been ſecurely locked and ſealed down by the Officer of Exciſe, and before the ſame ſhall have been unlocked and opened by the Officer of Exciſe, or ſhall wilfully break or damage any ſuch Lock or Seal, or other Faſtning, every ſuch Maker or Makers of Hard Soap ſo offending in any of the ſaid Caſes ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Makers of Hard Soap opening any Copper, &c. after being ſealed by the Officer of Exciſe, or wilfully damaging any ſuch Seal, ſhall forfeit 100 l.

Act 33 Geo. II.

VIII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing the exceſſive Uſe of ſpirituous Liquors, by laying additional Duties thereon; for ſhortening the Prohibition of making Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Grain, and from Meal, Flour, and Bran; for encouraging the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits; and for more effectually ſecuring the Duties payable upon Spirits, and preventing the fraudulent Relanding or Importation thereof, it was enacted and declared, That Perſons making or keeping any Waſh, Cyder, or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, and having in their Poſſeſſion or Occupation any Still or Stills, containing ſeparately or together Ten Gallons or upwards, ſhould be deemed and taken to be Common Diſtillers for Sale, and ſhould be liable to the Rates and Duties of Exciſe, and be ſubject to the Survey of the Officer of Exciſe, and to the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures impoſed by any Act of Parliament then in Force, in anywiſe relating to Diſtillers: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether by the Word Still, in the ſaid Clauſe mentioned, the Body of the Still, excluſive of the Head of ſuch Still, is not to be underſtood; now to obviate all ſuch Doubts, be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Still, the cubic Contents of which, when the Head is on, will amount to Ten Gallons or upwards, is a Still containing Ten Gallons or upwards, within the true Meaning of the laſt-recited Act: And all and every Perſon or Perſons, having or keeping any Waſh, Cyder, or other Materials fit for Diſtillation, and having in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion or Occupation, any ſuch laſt-mentioned Still or Stills, containing ſeparately or together Ten Gallons or upwards, Proof being thereof made as by the laſt-recited Act is directed, ſhall be deemed and taken to be a common Diſtiller for Sale, and ſhall be liable to the ſeveral Rates, Duties, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in and by the laſt-recited Act mentioned or referred unto.

If Cubic Contents of a Still, be Ten Gallons, or upwards.

Perſons uſing ſuch Stills, to be deemed Common Diſtillers.

Offenders proſecuted for Penalties by this Act given, not to be proſecuted again for the ſame Offence.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Offender, who ſhall be proſecuted for any of the Penalties by this Act given, ſhall not be proſecuted again for the ſame Offence by any former Act; and that ſuch Offender, who ſhall be proſecuted for the Penalty given by any former Act, ſhall not be proſecuted again for the ſame Offence, by virtue of this preſent Act, or any Thing herein contained.

Corn Diſtillers and Makers of Low Wines to provide and affix ſufficient Faſtnings to the Heads every Low Wine Still, &c.

X. And whereas great Frauds are committed by Corn Diſtillers charging their Stills, in the Abſence of the Officers of Exciſe, with Worts or Waſh, of which no Account has been taken by the ſaid Officers, and the Proviſions hitherto made have been found ineffectual to reſtrain ſuch Practices; for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, every Corn Diſtiller, or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn or Grain, ſhall, at his, her, or their own Expence, find, provide, and affix, ſufficient Faſtnings (to be approved of, in Writing, by and under the Hands of the reſpective Surveyors or Superviſors of Exciſe of the Diviſion or Diſtrict in which every ſuch reſpective Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn ſhall reſide) to the Heads of each and every Low Wine Still, and Waſh Still, Waſh Pumps, and Charging Cocks, through which Worts or Waſh are conveyed into ſuch Waſh Still or Waſh Stills belonging to, or uſed by, any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker, as aforeſaid; which ſaid Still Heads, and Charging Cocks, and Waſh Pumps, ſhall, and they are hereby required, from Time to Time, to be ſecurely locked and ſealed by the Officer of Exciſe who ſurveys ſuch Diſtiller and Maker as aforeſaid, in Manner as is herein-after directed; and ſuch Locks and Keys as ſhall be neceſſary for ſecuring the ſaid Still Heads, and Charging Cocks, and Waſh Pumps, ſhall be provided by the reſpective Surveyors or Superviſors of Exciſe of the Diviſion or Diſtrict in which ſuch reſpective Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits ſhall reſide, at the Expence of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker; and whenever any ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits from Corn ſhall be deſirous of charging his Still or Stills, or of uſing the Charge Cock or Waſh Pump ſo locked and ſealed, and ſhall have given Notice as herein-after is directed, the Officer of Exciſe ſhall attend to unlock and open the ſaid Still Heads, Charging Cocks, and Waſh Pumps.

Act 23 Geo. II. c. 24. VI. And whereas by an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery), a Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton was granted to the Owners of ſuch decked Veſſels as ſhould be fitted out and employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, in the Manner, and under the ſeveral Regulations and Reſtrictions, in the ſaid Act mentioned, to be paid yearly, during the Space of Fourteen Years from the Commencement of the ſaid Act, and no longer: And Act 28 Geo. II. c. 14. whereas by another Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for further explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual, an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery; and for giving further Encouragement for the carrying on the ſaid Fiſhery; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned); the ſaid Bounty was continued for the further Term of Three Years, to be computed immediately from and after the Expiration of the Term for which the ſame was granted, as aforeſaid: And

Act 30 Geo. II. c. 30. whereas by another Act, made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for allowing a further Bounty on Veſſels employed in the White Herring Fiſhery; for giving Liberty to alter the preſent Form and Size of the Nets uſed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned); it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the ſaid Bounty of Thirty Shillings, by the ſaid Two ſeveral Acts granted and continued for the reſpective Terms of Years therein reſpectively mentioned, ſhould ceaſe, determine, and be at an End; and, in lieu thereof, a Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton, on the Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, was granted for ſuch Term and Terms of Years, to be paid in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton was by the ſaid Two ſeveral Acts, or

Owners of Summer Fiſhery 1771, to be allowed a Bounty of 50*s*. per Ton; and Owners of Winter Fiſhery to be allowed 30*s*. per Ton.

ployed, as aforeſaid, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Owner or Owners of ſuch Ships or Veſſels as were fitted out and employed in the Firſt or Summer Fiſhery, for the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, ſhall be allowed a Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton for ſuch Veſſel ſo employed; and the Owner or Owners of ſuch Ships or Veſſels as were fitted out and employed in the latter or Winter Fiſhery, for the ſaid Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, ſhall be allowed a Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton, for ſuch Ships or Veſſels as were ſo fitted out and employed in that Fiſhery: Which ſaid reſpective Bounties hereby allowed ſhall be paid in the ſame Manner as, and ſhall in all other Reſpects be ſubject to, all the Reſtrictions and Regulations which were directed and preſcribed by the before-recited Acts, or any other Act of Parliament, with reſpect to the former Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton, which was granted by the ſaid recited Act, made in the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign; any Thing in the before-recited Acts, or any other Act, to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

During Five Years, from July 5, 1772, a Drawback of Three-fifth Parts of Duties of Cuſtoms to be allowed on Teas exported to Ireland or America.

WHEREAS the Drawback allowed by an Act of Parliament, made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for taking off the Inland Duty of One Shilling per Pound Weight upon all Black and Singlo Teas conſumed in Great Britain, and for granting a Drawback upon the Exportation of Teas to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America, for a limited Time, upon ſuch Indemnification to be made in reſpect thereof by the Eaſt India Company as is therein mentioned; for permitting the Exportation of Teas in ſmaller Quantities than One Lot to Ireland, or the ſaid Dominions in America; and for preventing Teas, ſeized and condemned, from being conſumed in Great Britain), upon the Exportation of Tea into Ireland, and the Britiſh Plantations in America, from this Kingdom, will ceaſe on the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two: And whereas it may tend to promote and encourage the Importation of Tea into Ireland, and the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, from this Kingdom, and prevent the illicit Trade carried on with Foreigners for that Commodity, if a Drawback of Part of the Cuſtoms paid here was allowed upon the Exportation thereof to thoſe Places: May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for and during the Space of Five Years, to be computed from and after the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas which ſhall be ſold after the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, at the publick Sale of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or which after that Time ſhall be imported by Licence, in purſuance of an Act of Parliament made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, (intituled, An Act for repealing the preſent Inland Duty of Four Shillings per Pound Weight upon all Tea ſold in Great Britain, and for granting to His Majeſty certain other Inland Duties, in lieu thereof; and for better ſecuring the Duty upon Tea, and other Duties of Exciſe; and for purſuing Offenders out of one County into another); and which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandiſe to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, Three-fifth Parts of the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms which were paid upon the Importation of ſuch Teas; which Drawback or Allowance, with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to Ireland, ſhall be made to the Exporter in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance is now payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of foreign Goods to Ireland; and, with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, the ſaid Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon upon foreign Goods exported to foreign Parts, was, could, or might be made, before the paſſing of this Act, (except in ſuch Caſes as are otherwiſe provided for by this Act.)

Drawback not to be allowed if not purſuant to Act 10 Geo. I.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Drawback allowed by this Act ſhall not be paid or allowed for any Teas which ſhall not be exported directly from the Warehouſe or Warehouſes wherein the ſame ſhall be lodged, purſuant to the Directions of an Act, made in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Firſt, and the before-recited Act, made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second.

After July 5, 1772, no Tea to be exported to Ireland, &c. in Ships of leſs than 80 Tons, &c. under Penalty of Forfeiture of ſuch Tea, and the Package.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, no Tea ſhall be exported, or laden on Board any Ship or Veſſel in order to be exported, to the Kingdom of Ireland, or to any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in any Ship of leſs Burthen than Eighty Tons, nor in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package whatſoever, other than that in which it was originally imported into Great Britain, nor in any leſs Quantity than the whole and entire Quantity contained in any Cheſt, Caſk, Tub, or Package, in which the ſame was ſold at the publick Sale of the ſaid Eaſt India Company, or in which the ſame was imported by Licence, as aforeſaid, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of ſuch Tea, and the Package containing the ſame, or the Value thereof.

Merchants entering Tea for Ireland, or America, and landing it in other Ports, to forfeit the Drawback, and Treble the Value of ſuch Tea.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Merchant, or other Perſon, ſhall enter any Tea for Exportation to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, in order to obtain the Drawback allowed by this Act, and ſuch Tea ſhall be carried to any other Part or Place beyond the Seas, and landed there; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Drawback paid, or to be paid, for the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and the Exporter of ſuch Tea, and the Maſter of the Ship or Veſſel on Board which the ſame was loaden and exported, and every Perſon concerned or aſſiſting in the Exportation or landing of the ſaid Tea, whether any Drawback hath been or is to be paid for the ſame or not, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value of ſuch Tea.

Regulations and Reſtrictions of Act 6 Geo. III. to extend to Cordage exported in purſuance of this Act.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That, in all other Reſpects, the ſeveral Regulations, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, mentioned and preſcribed in and by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall extend and be applied to Cordage exported in purſuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes relative thereto had been repeated and again enacted in this preſent Act.

Like Liberty of importing Rice from America by 5 Geo. III c. 45.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the like Liberty which is granted by an Act, made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for more effectually ſecuring and encouraging the Trade of His Majeſty's American Dominions; for repealing the Inland Duty on Coffee impoſed by an Act made in Thirty-ſecond Year of His late Majeſty King George the Second, and for granting an Inland Duty on all Coffee imported, (except Coffee of the Growth of the Britiſh Dominions in America); for altering the Bounties and Drawbacks upon Sugars exported; for repealing Part of an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of His ſaid late Majeſty, whereby Bar Iron, made in the ſaid Dominions, was prohibited to be exported from Great Britain, or carried Coaſtwiſe; and for regulating the Fees of the Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Dominions), to import Rice from any of the Britiſh Plantations in America into the Port of Plymouth, and ſeveral other Ports of this Kingdom in the ſaid Act mentioned, for immediate Exportation into foreign Parts, upon Payment of One Half of the old Subſidy, ſhall be extended to the Ports of Briſtol, Liverpoole, Lancaſter, and Whitehaven, under the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, in all Reſpects, as are preſcribed and directed by the ſaid recited Act, with reſpect to Rice ſo imported into the ſeveral Ports in the ſaid Act particularly mentioned.

CAP. LXI.

An Act to regulate the making, keeping, and Carriage of Gunpowder, within Great Britain; and to repeal the Laws heretofore made for any of thoſe Purpoſes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Manufacture of Gunpowder within Great Britain, though neceſſary to be encouraged in reſpect of the Value of Gunpowder, as an Article of Defence and Commerce, yet ought to be regulated by Law, in order to prevent the great Miſchiefs which may ariſe from Exploſions occaſioned by the improper Conſtruction and Uſe of the Mills, Engines, and Buildings, employed in the making of Gunpowder, and for keeping and carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, or in an improper Manner: And whereas the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reducing into One Act of Parliament the ſeveral Laws relating to the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder, and for more effectually preventing Miſchiefs by keeping or carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, contains no Proviſion for regulating the making of Gunpowder, and is in other Reſpects defective, on which account it may be convenient to repeal the ſaid Act, and, in the Room thereof, to have a new Law for regulating, as well the making as the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall uſe, or cauſe to be uſed, any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, or in any Manner manufacture Gunpowder in any Place or Places within Great Britain, except in Mills and other Places where the Manufacture of Gunpowder ſhall be actually carrying on at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, or where it ſhall afterwards become lawful to carry on ſuch Manufacture, by obtaining a Licence for that Purpoſe, under the Proviſions herein-after contained, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured contrary to the aforeſaid Proviſion, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſon to manufacture Gunpowder, except in Mills where it is carrying on at paſſing this Act, without a Licence.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, for the making of Gunpowder, employ, work, or uſe, any Mill or Engine, worked with a Peſtle or Peſtles, and commonly called a Peſtle Mill, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured therein, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſon hereafter to uſe a Peſtle Mill.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall, in or with any Mill or Engine uſed for the making of Gunpowder, make, or cauſe to be made, at any One Time under any ſingle Pair of Millſtones, any Quantity of Gunpowder, or Materials to be made into Gunpowder, exceeding Forty Pounds, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder ſo made at One Time, and exceeding the ſaid Quantity of Forty Pounds, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Not exceeding 40*lb.* to be made under a ſingle Pair of Millſtones.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be liable to any Proſecution under this Act for uſing any Peſtle Mill or Mills in the making of Gunpowder, or for making above the Quantity of Forty Pounds of Gunpowder at a Time, under every ſingle Pair of Millſtones in any One Mill, till after the Expiration of One Year from the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

Proviſo.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Powder Mills at this Time erected in the Pariſhes of Battle, Crowhurſt, Seddelſcomb, and Brede, in the County of Suſſex, ſo far as relates to the making ſuch fine fowling Gunpowder only, as is known and diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Battle Powder.

Proviſo.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall dry, or cauſe to be dried, at any One Time, in any One Stove or Place uſed for the drying of Gunpowder, any Quantity of Gunpowder, exceeding Forty hundred Weight, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder above the ſaid Quantity of Forty hundred Weight, and the Sum of Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Not exceeding 40 Cwt. to be dried at One Time.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to keep in any Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place, uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, or in any Building adjoining or belonging thereto, (except Magazines or Storehouſes conſtructed with Stone or Brick, and ſituate Fifty Yards at leaſt from the Gunpowder Mill or Mills), any greater Quantity of Gunpowder than ſhall be neceſſary for the immediate Work then carrying on in ſuch Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, upon Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder kept above ſuch neceſſary Quantity, and the Sum of Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No more than neceſſary for immediate Uſe to be kept in any Drying-houſe.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, keeping or uſing any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, ſhall, beſides the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes, near their Mills, have or provide a good and ſufficient Magazine or Magazines remote from their reſpective Mills, for the Purpoſe of receiving and ſafe-keeping all the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, as ſoon as the ſame can, from Time to Time, be conveniently removed thereto, (which laſt-mentioned Magazine or Magazines ſhall be well and ſubſtantially built with Brick or Stone, near the River Thames, and below Blackwail, or in ſome other convenient Place to be licenſed by the Juſtices of the Peace, in Manner herein-after mentioned), upon Pain that all and every Perſon or Perſons making Gunpowder, without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines remote from their Mills, or other Places of making Gunpowder, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds for every Month during which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall make Gunpowder without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines, and the Sum of Five Pounds for every Day during which he, ſhe, or they, (not being hindered by Streſs of Weather, or other juſt Impediment), ſhall wilfully neglect or delay removing, with due Diligence, the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, from thence, or from the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes adjoining thereto, to the Magazine or Magazines ſo to be ſituate remote from the Mill.

Dealers not to keep more than 200 lb. of Gunpowder at One Time.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall have or keep, at any One Time, being a Dealer or Dealers in Gunpowder, more than Two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder; and not being ſuch, more than Fifty Pounds of Gunpowder, in any Houſe, Mill, Magazine, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Yard, Wharf, or other Building or Place, occupied by the ſame Perſon or Perſons, (all Buildings and Places adjoining to each other, and occupied together, being to be deemed One Houſe or Place within this Act), or on any River or other Water, (except in Carriages loading or unloading, or paſſing on the Land, or in Ships, Boats, or Veſſels, loading or unloading, or paſſing on any River, or other Water, or detained there by the Tide or bad Weather), within the following Limits; (that is to ſay), Within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within Three Miles of either of them, or within any City, Borough, or Market-town of Great Britain, or One Mile of the ſame, or within Two Miles of any Palace or Houſe of Reſidence of His preſent Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or of Her preſent Majeſty the Queen, or any Queen Conſort, or Dowager, or within Two Miles of any Gunpowder Magazine belonging to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or within Half of a Mile of any Pariſh Church, or in any other Part of Great Britain, (except in Mills or other Places which at the Commencement of this Act ſhall be uſed for the making of Gunpowder, and the Magazines, Storehouſes, and Offices thereto adjoining and belonging, and in the Places where it ſhall be lawful to make Gunpowder, or to keep greater or unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, by Force of the Proviſions herein-after contained), on Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder beyond the Quantity hereby allowed to be kept, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be; and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of Gunpowder beyond ſuch allowed Quantity.

Proviſo.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to keep, for the Uſe of any Mine or Colliery, any Quantity of Gunpowder, not exceeding Three hundred Pounds Weight, in any Magazine or Warehouſe, ſo as ſuch Magazine or Warehouſe be within Two hundred Yards of the reſpective Mine or Colliery for the Uſe of which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be kept, and alſo that ſuch Magazine or Warehouſe be not within any of the Limits herein-before particularly deſcribed.

Manner of giving Notice for conſtructing new Mills.

XIII. And whereas it may be neceſſary to have ſome Places appointed, in which it may be lawful to erect new Mills, or other Engines, for making Gunpowder, with proper Magazines and Offices adjoining thereto, and to have Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in Places where there are no Mills; be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace for each County, or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, upon Application made to them by any Perſon or Perſons, (ſuch Perſon or Perſons having given Notice in Writing of the Intention to make ſuch Application, as alſo of the Place or Places propoſed for ſuch Purpoſes reſpectively, Fourteen Days before making it, to an Overſeer or Churchwarden of the Pariſh or Place in which it is propoſed to erect or make any ſuch new Mill, and Offices or Magazine, or of an adjoining Pariſh, if the Place ſhall be extraparochial; which Overſeer or Churchwarden is hereby required to cauſe ſuch Notice to be publickly read on the Sunday next enſuing, in the Pariſh Church, after Divine Service, from Time to Time, to licenſe the erecting or having ſuch Mills for making Gunpowder, and proper Offices adjoining thereto, or ſuch Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſuch Places, not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits within Great Britain, herein-before particularly deſcribed.

Proceedings may be removed from the Quarter Seſſions to the King's Bench.

XIV. And whereas it would be proper that the Determination of the ſaid Court of Quarter Seſſions, on any ſuch Application, ſhould not be final, but that any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be refuſed ſuch Licence or Appointment by the ſaid Court of Quarter Seſſions, ſhould have an Opportunity of bringing his or their Caſe before the Court of King's Bench, in order that the ſaid Court may finally hear and determine the ſame; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Caſe where the ſaid Court of Quarter Seſſions ſhall, on ſuch Application made as aforeſaid, refuſe to licenſe any ſuch new Mills and Magazines for making and keeping Gunpowder, or to appoint Pieces of Ground for Magazines of Gunpowder remote from any Mills, it ſhall be lawful for all Perſons who may think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch Refuſal, to apply to ſuch Court of Quarter Seſſions for a Special Caſe thereupon; and the Juſtices then preſent ſhall, and are hereby required to certify the Special Circumſtances of the Caſe in Queſtion, together with the Proofs offered for and againſt the Application, in order that the ſaid Caſe and Proceedings may be removed, by Writ of Certiorari, into the Court of King's Bench; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby required, in their Return to ſuch Writ of Certiorari, to ſtate ſuch Special Caſe, to the End that the ſaid Court of King's Bench may judge of the real Merits thereof; and if upon the whole Matter it ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Court of King's Bench, that the Juſtices ought not to have refuſed the ſaid Licence or Appointment; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Court ſhall have Power, and is hereby directed, to make an Order upon the ſaid Juſtices to grant ſuch Licence, or make ſuch Appointment, without any freſh Application at their next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace; and the Coſts to be incurred by reaſon of ſuch Writ of Certiorari, ſhall be awarded according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Court of King's Bench.

No Perſon liable to pay any Penalty, till Six Months after Adjudication.

XV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to pay any Penalty or Proſecution under this Act, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices, in any Magazine apart and remote from any Gunpowder Mill, and already built and uſed for that Purpoſe, in any Place not being within London and Weſtminſter, and the other Limits within Great Britain herein-before particularly deſcribed, until the Expiration of Six Calendar Months after an Adjudication by the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, or other Diviſion, in which any ſuch Magazine ſhall be, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, that the ſame is dangerous; it being hereby declared that they ſhall not have Authority to make any ſuch Adjudication, except on Complaint made to them of any ſuch Magazine by ſome Houſeholder of the Pariſh or Place in which the Magazine ſhall be, and after due Summons of the Owner or Owners of the Magazine complained of, to anſwer ſuch Complaint, and after ſuch Examination on Oath of the Witneſſes produced to ſupport or invalidate ſuch Complaint; and alſo that no Perſon ſhall be liable, at any Time, to any Penalty or Proſecution whatſoever, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices of the Peace, in any Magazine erected by Appointment of the Juſtices of the Peace, under the Power given to them by any of the former Acts regulating the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder.

Juſtices to appoint proper Ground for erecting Magazines.

XVI. And whereas by this Act the Makers of Gunpowder will be liable to Penalties for not having Magazines remote from their Mills, and in ſome Caſes they may not be able to agree for the Purchaſe of Pieces of Ground proper for ſuch Magazines; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace for each County, or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, ſhall, on Application made to them, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, by any Maker or Makers of Gunpowder, from Time to Time, appoint proper and convenient Pieces of Ground, (not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits of Great Britain herein-before particularly deſcribed, and not exceeding One Acre in any One Place), with the Uſe of convenient Roads thereto, on which Pieces ſo to be appointed ſuch Makers of Gunpowder may erect Magazines for keeping Gunpowder in any Quantity, after having agreed with the Owners of ſuch Grounds for the Purchaſe of the ſame; and if any ſuch Owner ſhall not agree, or by reaſon of any Impediment cannot ſo agree, ſuch Juſtices ſhall iſſue a Warrant to the Sheriff of the County, or other Officer having Return of Writs within their Juriſdiction, to impanel and return before them, at ſuch Times and Places as ſhall be appointed by ſuch Warrant, a ſufficient Jury, who, upon their Oaths, to be adminiſtered by the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall inquire into the true Value of the ſaid Pieces of Ground, with the Uſe of ſuch convenient Roads thereto, and their Verdicts ſhall be kept with the Records of the ſaid Seſſions reſpectively; and the Judgement of the ſaid Juſtices thereon ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties: And for that End the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have Power to ſend for any Perſons intereſted, and to examine any Parties or Witneſſes upon Oath; and the Sums of Money ſo to be aſſeſſed and adjudged, not exceeding Thirty Years Purchaſe, ſhall be paid to the Owners of the ſaid Ground, according to their reſpective Intereſts therein, in ſuch Proportions as ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices; and, upon ſuch Payment, or in caſe of Refuſal to accept the Money, then upon leaving the ſame with the Juſtices for the Benefit of the Owners, the Inheritance of the ſaid Ground, and the Uſe of the ſaid Roads thereto, ſhall be veſted in the Purchaſers thereof, their Heirs and Aſſigns, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe.

Judgement of Juſtices to be final.

Leſſee or Tenant may make void former Leaſes, &c. on giving Three Months Notice to the Leſſor.

XVII. And whereas Leaſes, or Agreements for Leaſes, may have been made of Magazines or other Places for keeping Gunpowder, and, in conſequence of this Act, it may become unlawful to keep unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſome of ſuch Magazines or Places; be it therefore enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Leſſee or Tenant of any ſuch Magazine or Place for keeping Gunpowder to make void any ſuch Leaſe or Agreement, upon giving Three Calendar Months Notice in Writing to the Leſſor or Owner of ſuch Magazine or Place, of the Deſire of the Tenant to have ſuch Leaſe or Agreemnt determined, and upon paying to ſuch Leſſor or Owder all Rents and Sums of Money which ſhall become due for the ſame to the Time of Determination limited in ſuch Notice, and upon performing all Covenants and Agreements on the Part of the Leſſee or Tenant to that Time.

Not more to be conveyed at One Time than 25 Barrels by Land, nor 200 Barrels by Water.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall have or convey at any One Time, within Great Britan, more than Twenty-five Barrels of Gunpowder, in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, by Land; or more than Two hundred Barrels of Gunpowder, in any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel by Water, (except in Veſſels with Gunpowder imported from, or to be exported to, any Place beyond the Sea, or going Coaſtwiſe); and all Gunpowder conveyed on Land or Water, (excepting ſuch Veſſels for Importation or Exportation of Gunpowder, or going Coaſtwiſe), ſhall be in Barrels cloſe joined and hooped, without any Iron about them, and ſo ſecured that no Part of the Gunpowder be ſcattered in the Paſſage; and each Barrel ſhall contain no more than One hundred Pounds of Gunpowder; and when conveyed by Land ſhall be entirely incloſed in a Leather Bag, or a Bag commonly called a Salt Petre Bag; and every Carriage in which Gunpowder ſhall be conveyed by Land ſhall have a complete Covering of Wood, painted Cloth, Tarpaulin, or Wadmill Tilts, over all the Gunpowder therein contained; and alſo no Gunpowder ſhall be conveyed in any Barge, Boat, or other Veſſel, by Water, (except in Veſſels with Gunpowder imported, or to be exported, in Manner aforeſaid, or going Coaſtwiſe), that hath not a cloſe Deck; and as ſoon as any Gunpowder is put on Board ſuch Veſſel, all ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be covered with raw Hides or Tarpaulins; and all Gunpowder which ſhall be carried or conveyed, (except in ſuch Veſſels with Gunpowder for Importation or Exportation, as aforeſaid, or going Coaſtwiſe), within any Part of Great Britain, in greater Quantity, or in other Manner than is herein-before preſcribed, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be, may be ſeized by any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have the ſame Authority to remove ſuch Gunpowder and Barrels, and to uſe for that Purpoſe, during the Space of Twenty-four Hours after Seizure, the Carriage or Veſſel in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be ſeized, and the Tackling, Beaſts, and Accoutrements, belonging thereto, on the Terms of paying a Recompence for the Uſe thereof; and to detain ſuch Gunpowder and Barrels as is herein-after given to Perſons ſearching under a Warrant of a Juſtice of the Peace; and ſuch Seizure ſhall be for his, her, or their own Uſe, on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

No Gunpowder to be loaded till that condemned be unloaded.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Barge, Boat, or Veſſel, having ſtale, condemned, or returned Gunpowder on Board, arrives at the Wharf, Key, or other Place where the ſame is intended to be landed, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall begin to unload, or ſhall bring down to ſuch Wharf, Key, or other Place, with Intent to load in ſuch Veſſel any other Gunpowder, until the Whole, or a Part of ſuch ſtale, condemned, or returned Gunpowder, be firſt unloaded and carried away from ſuch Wharf, Key, or other Place of landing; and after ſuch unloading and carrying away of Part of ſuch Gunpowder, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall begin to load, or ſhall ſo bring down, with Intent to load, any greater Quantity of other Gunpowder than the Part unloaded and carried away, on Pain of forfeiting all ſuch Gunpowder as ſhall be ſo brought down or loaded contrary to the aforeſaid Proviſion.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to enable the Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors, to raiſe a competent Sum of Money, to be applied for the repairing, improving, or rebuilding, ſuch Part of Tyne Bridge as belongs to the See of Durham.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend Father in God John Lord Biſhop of Durham is intitled, in Right of his See, to One-third Part of an ancient Bridge extending acroſs the River Tyne, between the Town of Gateſhead, in the County Palatine of Durham, and the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne: And whereas, by the Violence and Rapidity of a moſt extraordinary Flood, which happened on the Seventeenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, in the River of Tyne, the ſaid Bridge was very much damaged, broken down in ſeveral Places, and rendered utterly impaſſable: And whereas, in order to reſtore an eaſy and ſafe Communication between the Counties of Durham and Northumberland, it is highly expedient that the ſaid Bridge ſhould be rebuilt, or effectually repaired, with all poſſible Expedition: And inaſmuch as the neceſſary Repairs of the One-third Part of the ſaid Bridge, belonging to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham in Right of his See, and extending from Two Blue Marble or Boundary Stones, on the South Side of the ſaid Bridge, to the ſaid Town of Gateſhead, will be attended with a great Expence; and however reaſonable or proper it may be, that the entire Sum neceſſary to be appropriated for, and employed in, that uſeful and neceſſary Work, ought to be raiſed out of, or ſecured upon, the Revenues and Poſſeſſions of the ſaid See of Durham, and that the Lord Biſhop of Durham for the Time being, ought not to bear any greater Burthen than ſhall ariſe from the Intereſt or annual Charge to be paid in reſpect of the Principal Money to be raiſed for the Purpoſe aforeſaid; yet the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham is conſenting that a reaſonable and adequate Sum of Money may be raiſed by the Authority of Parliament, by granting Annuities for Lives, which will not only be ſpeedy and effectual, but may be a Method leſs burthenſome to the Succeſſors in the ſaid See, than to the ſaid John now Lord Biſhop of Durham, by the eventual dropping of Lives, and the Decreaſe of ſuch temporary Charge: Wherefore, may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Chancellor of the Biſhoprick and County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, the Sheriff of the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, the Vicar General and principal Official of the Dioceſe of Durham, the Attorney and Solicitor General to the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the principal Regiſter or Regiſtrar of the Dioceſe of Durham, the Auditor to the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Keeper of Auckland Caſtle, the Steward of the Halmote Courts of the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Clerk of the Halmote Courts of the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Clerk of the Great Receipt of the Exchequer of Durham, the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery of Durham, the Clerk of the Chancery of Durham, and the Keeper of the Rolls of the Chancery aforeſaid, the Clerk of the Itinerant Juſtices, and other Juſtices whomſoever, in the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, and the Bailiff of the Borough of Auckland for the Time being, ſhall be, and they are hereby appointed Truſtees for putting this Act in Execution, by and under the Direction of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors.

Truſtees appointed for putting this Act in Execution.

No Truſtee to accept of a Place of Profit.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Truſtee in the Execution of this Act, during the Time he ſhall hold any Office or Appointment to which any Salary or pecuniary Profit ſhall be annexed by virtue or in purſuance of this Act; nor ſhall any ſuch Truſtee, on his own private Account, enter into any Contract, or have any Share or Intereſt in any Contract, relating to the Execution of any of the Powers contained in this Act.

Truſtees authoriſed to contract for Ground, &c. for improving the Bridge and the Avenue thereto.

III. And whereas it may be neceſſary to open a more convenient Avenue and Paſſage to that Part of the ſaid Bridge which belongs to the ſaid See of Durham, and to remove the Erections and Buildings on the ſame; be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed, by and under ſuch Direction of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors, as aforeſaid, to treat, contract, and agree with any Perſon or Perſons, for the abſolute Purchaſe of any Eſtate or Intereſt in any Buildings or Ground which ſhall be deemed neceſſary to be appropriated, for the better and more effectually repairing, rebuilding, or improving, ſuch Part of the ſaid Bridge as belongs to the ſaid See of Durham, and for making more convenient the Avenue and Paſſage leading on the ſame, or to appropriate any Building or Ground which the ſaid Biſhop is intitled unto in Right of his See, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

To raiſe any Sum not exceeding 12,000*l.* for the Purpoſes of this Act, by granting Annuities.

IV. And, foraſmuch as the raiſing an adequate Sum of Money upon the Credit of this Act, by granting Annuities for Lives, will be a ſpeedy and effectual Method of carrying the Intentions of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham into complete Execution; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to contribute, advance, and pay, to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers as the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, ſhall, in Manner herein-after mentioned, authoriſe and impower to receive the ſame, for the Uſes herein-after expreſſed, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, for the abſolute Purchaſe of Twelve or more Annuities for Lives, to be paid and payable, and the ſame are hereby directed to continue and be paid, during the full Term of the natural Life of each ſuch Contributor reſpectively, or the natural Life of ſuch other Perſon as ſhall be nominated by or on the Behalf of each Contributor reſpectively, at the Time of Payment of their reſpective Purchaſe or Contribution-money; which Annuity or Annuities ſhall not reſpectively exceed the Rate of Ten Pounds per Annum for every One hundred Pounds advanced and actually paid, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Sum ſo to be advanced and paid as aforeſaid; and the ſaid ſeveral Annuities, ſo to be purchaſed, ſhall be charged upon, and be paid and payable out of the Rents, Revenues, and Profits, of the ſaid See, which, from Time to Time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, ſhall be received by the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, or ſhall come to the Hands of, or be received by the Receiver-general for the Time being of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, by ſuch Receiver-general, or his Succeſſors, at ſuch Place in the City of Durham, by equal Half-yearly Payments, as in the Order or Orders herein-after mentioned for Payment thereof ſhall be reſpectively expreſſed; and ſuch Receiver-general for the Time being ſhall be credited, or have an Allowance in his Accounts, of or for all ſuch Sums of Money as he ſhall actually pay by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Payments had reſpectively been really and bona fide made to the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors; and the ſaid ſeveral Annuities ſhall commence from the Receipt of any Sum or Sums of Money reſpectively; and ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall not be ſubject or liable to any Deduction or Abatement for or in reſpect of any Tax, Charge, or Aſſeſſment, impoſed or to be impoſed by Authority of Parliament, or otherwiſe howſoever, upon the Lands, Tenements, or Perſons, by this Act charged therewith, or by whom, or out of which the ſame are to be anſwered and paid; nor ſhall any ſuch Annuitant or Annuitants, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, or any of them, be anſwerable or accountable for the Miſapplication or Nonapplication of, or liable to make good any Loſs that ſhall or may happen in, or of, any ſuch Purchaſe or Conſideration Money that ſhall be ſo advanced or paid as aforeſaid, or any Part thereof; and the Receipt or Receipts of the ſaid ſeveral Annuitants, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, for all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, as ſhall be paid to them, or any of them reſpectively, by the ſaid Receiver-general for the Time being, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be as good and effectual Diſcharges to ſuch Receiver-general, as if the ſame Sum and Sums had been actually paid to the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors.

Previous to Sale of ſuch Annuities, Notice to be given in the London Gazette.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That, previous to the Sale of ſuch Annuities, in order to raiſe the ſaid Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, or any Part thereof, One Calendar Month's Notice at the leaſt ſhall, Four or more different Days, be given in the London Gazette, expreſſing the Intention of the Sale of ſuch Annuity or Annuities, ſo as to raiſe the ſaid Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, or any Part thereof, in order that any Perſon may have an Opportunity to deliver in Propoſals for what annual Income or Payment per Centum they are willing to advance their Money; and the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſhall, (if the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, ſhall think any ſuch Propoſals reaſonable), give the Preference to the loweſt Propoſer, Regard being had to the Circumſtances of Age and Health; and the ſaid Annuities ſhall be ſold by the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſubject to the Approbation of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, to be ſignified by any Writing under his Hand, to the beſt Advantage they can.

VI. And, for the more effectual ſecuring to the ſaid Annuitants the regular and full Payment of their reſpective Annuities, be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Annuities ſhall be alſo charged upon and iſſuing out of, and the ſame are hereby charged upon and directed to be iſſued out of all or any ſuch Part of the Temporalities and Poſſeſſions belonging to the ſaid See of Durham, as ſhall, from Time to Time, and at any Time hereafter, during the Life or Lives of any ſuch Annuitant or Annuitants, be held in Demeſne, or be in the immediate Poſſeſſion or Holding of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors: And if it ſhall happen that the ſaid ſeveral Annuities, or any of them, or any Part thereof reſpectively, ſhall be behind and unpaid for Twenty-one Days after any of the Feaſts or Days which ſhall be limited and appointed for Payment thereof; then, and ſo often, and from Time to Time, as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Annuitants, or Perſons intitled to ſuch Annuities reſpectively, and his and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, into and upon the Premiſes ſo hereby charged, for more effectually ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or into and upon any Part thereof, to enter and diſtrain; and the Diſtreſs and Diſtreſſes then and there found, to take, lead, drive, carry away, and impound, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, according to Law, until the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, and all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Entry and Diſtreſs, and all Damages to be ſuſtained by reaſon of the Nonpayment thereof, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid: And moreover, that if the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or any Part thereof, ſhall be behind or unpaid for Forty Days after any of the Feaſts or Days which ſhall be limited or appointed for Payment thereof; then, and ſo often, from Time to Time, as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Annuitants, or Perſons intitled to ſuch Annuites reſpectively, and his and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, into the ſame Premiſes to enter, and to take and receive the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits thereof to his, her, and their own Uſe and Benefit, until thereby or therewith, or otherwiſe, all Arrears of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities then grown due, or that, during ſuch Poſſeſſion ſhall grow due, and all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Entry upon, and Perception of the Rents and Profits of the ſame Premiſes, and all Damages that he, ſhe, or they, ſhall then have ſuſtained by reaſon of the Nonpayment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or yearly Sums, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid.
